Industrial Securities Company, Stuttgart, Arkansas. Incorporated February 9, 1911. Authority revoked by Governor's proclamation of April 23, 1923, under Act No. 158 of 1923.

Industrial Securities Co. Incorporated under the laws of the state of Delaware January 23, 1922, and acquired for itself a very questionable reputation. Its various enterprises were never known to have been a financial success for its stockholders. Among the companies promoted by this company, headed by C. R. Cole were Drymond, Smith Company, Mutual Electric Company and the Perfection Tire and Rubber Company (which see) none of which we understand were a financial success. The Industrial Securities Company developed an "indemnity bond" for the protection of investors against loss on purchases of securities from this concern, which was issued with each sale of stock, as a carefully drawn up guarantee which called for the repurchase of the stock at a given time at double the price at which it was sold. Thousands of such guarantees were put in the hands of the public who placed their faith in them as an assurance not only against loss of their capital but an insurance of double profit. In promoting his schemes Cole employed all the tricks of the get-rich-quick promoters. In January, 1920, the Industrial Securities Company was thrown into receivership. This action was taken, we understand, to forestall the collecting of more than $500,000 on indemnity bonds maturing on December 31, 1919, given by the company with promotion stock which it sold. The bill set forth, that on June 30 and December 31, 1929, $2,000,000 more of similar bonds were to mature and it was said that if these were enforced, stock of the company would be worthless. Bill also alleged that indemnity bonds were invalid. The company finally failed and C. R. Cole took himself to Texas where, he told his former stockholders, in voluminous circulars, his great expectations of recouping his fallen enterprises and restore to them the wealth he had explicity promised as a certainty but in order to accomplish this he would need some more financial assistance. It is hoped that there were no more gullible stockholders left to respond to this appeal. There is no doubt that both the stock and indemnity bonds are without value at the present time. Company's charter was declared void on January 23, 1922 on account of taxes being unpaid for two years.

Inman Mining Company. This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Arizona, September 24, 1903, with a capitalization of $1,500,000, par value $1. The stock when first offered was at a very low price but it later advanced to 25 cents and in the summer of 1904, was quoted at 30 cents. It was reported that the company at the outset had sixteen claims divided into 3 groups consisting of the Black Chief Group, the Reservation Group and the Creede Group, located near Bocatello, in Bannock County, Idaho, and that in the summer of 1904, had increased its property by adding 17 more claims making a total of 33 then owned by the company. As a speculation the company at that time appeared to have prospects. The officers were reported to be as follows: E. D. Shaffee, president; A. B. Shaw, vice-president; E. S. Ward, secretary; and W. W. Leaver, treasurer; and were all reported as capable conservative business men who put considerable capital into the enterprise. The company had their general office at 518 Walnut Street, Philadelphia. We do not locate any quotations of this company's stock nor any record of dividends that might have been paid. While the company was incorporated in 1903, it has since 1912, failed to make annual reports or pay annual fees, as required by the Arizona Corporation Commission laws for which reason the company is legally dead. We do not find any present market for the stock and as the company is apparently dead we believe the stock to be of no value.

International Candy Company. Organized under a Declaration of Trust filed in Harris County, Texas with an authorized capitalization of $1,000,000. Officers: W. C. Gaines, president, E. H. Gaines, assistant secretary. We have no record to the effect that the stock of the International Candy Company was sold through the Securities Holding Company of Houston, Texas. The following was reported in the press of February 28, 1921: "These get rich quick promotors are boosting a candy company which, so far as we can see simply consists of an ambition to grow as large as Huyler or some other well known candy concern. In this company they will give, as a stock dividend, 100 shares for every preferred share of their own company that is purchased. For their own stock they ask only $10 a share. On that basis stock of the International Candy Company, not intrinsically but on paper, which is the only real commodity dealt in by the concern, is appraised at 10c a share. The cheapness of the price properly rates its importance in the candy industry. Yet out of this shell these human windmills have the nerve to tell people hundreds of thousands in return may issue. There is plenty of hot air emanating from Texas and this is but one sample of it." This newspaper clipping would leave one to believe that the company came to no good end and that the stock of the company was no doubt worthless.

International Mercantile Agency. Incorporated New Jersey January 15, 1902. Capital authorized $3,000,000. Officers: At the time of incorporation Mr. McCanley was president; upon his resignation Mr. W. C. Lane was placed in office. On August 26, 1904, this company went into the hands of a receiver, a Mr. George N. Beach. On October 6, 1904, the assets, reports, furniture and all the other belongings of the International Mercantile Agency, in which it is believed the public invested $3,000,000, were sold by Mr. Beach for $26,000. After various liens were paid and the receivership fees deducted from this amount it was expected that there would be about $2,000 with which the stockholders could console themselves. The voluminous reports of the company were sold for $10 to Charles R. Barritt who also paid $23,000 for furniture, typewriters, fixtures and other things and $3,000 for the corporation's outstanding accounts. Company was dissolved in 1905. We do not believe the securities of this agency have any value at this time, but if you desire further information we suggest you communicate with Mr. Beach, the receiver, who is now located at 75 Montgomery Street, Jersey City, N. J.

International Oil & Gas Company. Incorporated under the laws of Texas. Charter forfeited about 1918.

International Oil & Gas Corporation. Company was a successor to Pine Island Refining Co. Incorporated in Delaware on April 15, 1919, for the purpose of producing and refining crude oils. Capital stock, authorized, 10,000,000 shares common, par $1, issued 3,000,000 shares. Officers were P. L. Hart, president; O. F. Smith, vice-president, of Chicago, Illinois, and Axel Swanson, secretary and treasurer, of New York City. Directors: The foregoing and Thompson Ross. Company is no longer in existence, having become inoperative and void on April 1, 1928, and proclaimed by the Governor January, 1925, for non-payment of taxes. Mr. Swanson advises us that this stock has no value. The first mortgage bonds have been in default as to principal and interest since August 1, 1924, and it is doubtful that the stock has any equity in the properties. We therefore believe these shares to be valueless as of February 9, 1929. The company was a subsidiary of the Lewis Oil Corp., which went into the hands of a receiver on December, 1927; 6.950 shares of its stock sold at auction for $240 the lot. International Oil & Gas Corp. stock, on February 16, 1927, 50 shares sold at auction for $1 the lot.

International Rubber Corporation, Grand Rapids, Michigan. Dissolution filed May 15, 1923.

International Rubber and Trading Company. This company was organized about August, 1903, under the laws of Arizona. Capital stock, authorized, $5,000,000 preferred, par $10. Officers (old): Harvey Harding, president; Milton Dowd, secretary and treasurer. Address (old), 52 Broadway, New York City. Remarks: In about 1902 the Para Rubber Company was organized under the laws of Arizona with a capital stock of $5,000,000, par $10, to develop and operate certain property located on the Casaquiare River in South America and consisting of 2,000,000 acres of para rubber trees. In the year 1902 the stock of the Para Rubber Company was offered for sale by the company at par, which at that time was considered rather high as it was considered very speculative, the company having just begun operations. At a meeting held August 6, 1903, the stockholders of the Para Rubber Company voted to change the name to the International Rubber and Trading Company and to increase the capital stock from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000, one-half of which was preferred. In December, 1903, we find the following report in regard to this company: "This proposition is not an investment, but simply a speculation, as in all cases of this kind, the purchaser of stock must be more or less prepared to take more or less risk." In June, 1904, it was reported that: "Considerable trouble has been encountered in securing and keeping laborers on the Casaquiare properties on account of revolutionary troubles." In about January, 1905, the International Rubber and Trading Company was succeeded by the Two Republics Chartered Company, organized under Arizona laws, and, we understand, the rate of exchange was one (1) share of new stock for twenty (20) shares of the old stock. The stock of the Two Republics Chartered Company was traded on the New York Curb for a short while at about $8.50 a share which shows that the stock of the International Rubber and Trading Company must have been of little value, at the time it was succeeded by the Two Republics Chartered Company. Some time prior to December, 1905, the office of the Two Republics Chartered Company at 52 Broadway, New York City, was given up and no new address was left by which its future headquarters could be located. In June, 1906, the stock of the Two Republics Chartered Company was reported valueless and such is without doubt the case. Therefore, in view of the past history of this proposition, we do not believe the stock of the International Rubber and Trading Company has any value at the present time. It is also our opinion that both the common and preferred stock of this company has been worthless many years. The Para Rubber Company did not prove a success and was reorganized as the International Rubber and Trading Company which subsequently was reorganized as the Two Republics Chartered Company and as the latter company went out of existence about 1905, we do not attach any value to the stock of the Internaional Rubber and Trading Company at the present time.

International Sales & Manuacturing Co. Incorporated under the laws of New Jersey. Was proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1915, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

International Smelting & Refining Company. Incorporated under the laws of New Jersey in December, 1908, to do a general smelting and refining business. Acquired a site near Pine Canyon, Utah, on which it erected a smelter to treat the ore from the mines of the Utah Consolidated Mining Co. and built the Tooele Valley Railway Co. to connect with the San Pedro Los Angeles & Pacific Railroad. Purchased the entire capital stocks of the Raritan Copper Works, the Raritan Terminal & Transportation Co. and the New Jersey Storage & Warehouse Co. and in 1912 organized the International Lead Refining Co. to build a refinery at East Chicago, Ind. Erected a lead smelting plant at International, Utah. In May, 1914, stockholders authorized the sale for $10,392,709 of all the property and assets of the company to the Anaconda Copper Mining Co., which was to assume all indebtedness and liabilities. Had outstanding $10,000,000 capital stock, shares $100 par. Listed on the Boston Stock Exchange. Received dividends of 3 per cent. in 1909 and 8 per cent. yearly thereafter to 1913. In the sale, stockholders received 3.3 shares of Anaconda stock for 1 old share. Filed a certificate surrendering its charter with the Secretary of State at Trenton on May 26, 1914.

International Specialties Co. Incorporated under the laws of New Jersey. Was proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1915, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

International Specialty Co., Detroit, Michigan. Dissolution filed November 16, 1925.

International Sporting Club of America. Organized about 1920 and is reported to have issued 1,500 $500 par value bonds which entitled the purchasers to membership in a sporting club. In 1922, Tex O'Rourke was mentioned as secretary and the office of the club at 110 West 42nd St., New York City. Mr. Tex O'Rourke is now located at 1476 Broadway, New York City. The club was declared bankrupt in 1922 and we understand the only asset is a claim against Tex Rickard for $5,000, which is believed to be uncollectible, while the liabilities outstanding greatly exceed this claim. Apparently there is no possibility of anything being realized for the bondholder and we believe the $500 bond to be of no value. On December 29, 1923, we find that one $500 bond sold at auction in New York, N. Y., for $2.

International Sporting Goods Manufacturing Co. Incorporated under the laws of Delaware. Was proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1915, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

International Terra Cotta Lumber Company. Incorporated in Illinois. Capital stock $1,200,000. Bond issue $100,000. Officers: Chas. C. Gilman, president; D. W. C. Rowley, secretary and treasurer. Trustee: American Loan & Trust Company, Boston, Mass., now known as American Trust Company. We have been advised that the bonds of this company are entirely worthless as the company failed to make its interest payments due on the bonds shortly after their issuance. Nothing was ever realized on the bonds in the way of any foreclosure or liquidating payments.

International Theatres of America, Inc. This company has no longer any legal existence. It became inoperative and void March 17, 1926, and proclaimed by the Governor January, 1927, for non-payment of taxes. The officers were as follows: John Braken, Altoona, Pa., president; Benjamin Jacobson, 6425 West Chester Pike, Pa., vice-president; Joseph Schubert, Gayety Theatre, Philadelphia, Pa., secretary and treasurer. The last address of the company was at Gayety Theatre, 8th above Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa. We have written to the officers of this company and all our letters have been returned; we believe the company out of existence and its stock worthless. There is no market for the stock.

International Townsite Co., Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Charter forfeited for non-payment of taxes 1910.

International Toy Mfg. Co., Seattle. Washington charter stricken from record for failure to pay taxes July 1, 1925.

International Traction Company. We are advised that the company defaulted in the payment of interest due April, 1919, and under the reorganization depositing noteholders were given for $1,000 note $800 face value of International Railway Company common stock voting trust certificates without the necessity of making any other payment except the expenses of the committee, and were also given the right to subscribe for $200 face value of Railway 5 per cent. bonds and $1,000 face value Railway stock (voting trust certificates) upon the payment of $203.30. In March, 1921, the securities subscribed for and to which the depositors were entitled were distributed to them and the protective agreement of April 22, 1919, terminated. The collateral securing the notes was sold by the Central Union Trust Company, trustee, at public sale in New York on July 16, 1919, and as a result of that sale the trustee is in possession of the proceeds which entitled non-depositing noteholders to the sum of $347.36 for each $1,000 face value of notes held by them. This sum may be had upon presentation to the trustee of notes with the April 1, 1919 and subsequent coupons attached.

METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY — NEW YORK

Biggest in the World, More Assets, More Policyholders, More Insurance in Force, More New Insurance

NOT BEST BECAUSE THE BIGGEST, BUT BIGGEST BECAUSE THE BEST

Interstate Chemical Corporation. Incorporated Virginia, in October, 1911. Capital stock: Authorized and outstanding $2,150,000, 7 per cent. (Cum. since July 1, 1914) preferred stock and $3,600,000 common stock. Par value: $100. Transfer agent: Redmond & Company, New York City. Registrar: Lincoln Trust Company, New York City. Dividends: None paid on either class of stock. Funded debt: $1,500,000, first mortgage 6 per cent. 20-year sinking fund gold bonds, dated October 2, 1911, and due October 1, 1931, subject to redemption at 110 and interest (a) by lot for sinking fund beginning 1914, (b) in whole, at option of company at any interest date, January and July 1st. Trustee: Equitable Trust Company, New York City. Interest: Redmond & Company, New York City. Receivership: On July 16, 1917, F. B. Tilghman and W. R. Sullivan were appointed receivers by the U. S. Court. Officers: F. B. Tilghman, vice president, New York; Chas. S. Bryan, secretary, New York; J. D. Muller, secretary, Charleston, South Carolina. Reorganization: The Interstate Chemical Company was reorganized in accordance with reorganization plan dated December 28, 1917, which was incorporated in Delaware in March, 1918. The capital stock of the new company consisted of $2,000,000, 7 per cent. 1st pfd. (par $100); $500,000 6 per cent. non-cumulative 2nd pfd. (par $100) and 20,000 shares of common stock of no par value. Provision: Under reorganization plan, holders of bonds received first preferred stocks, equal in aggregate par value to the principal amount of bonds represented by the certificate of deposit, and interest thereon computed to January 1, 1918, less $30 bond previously paid on account thereof (i. e. $1,210 for each $1,000 bond having the July 1, 1914, and all subsequent coupons attached) and also an equal number of whole shares of common stock, fractions of these shares being disregarded. The second preferred shares, we understand, were used to satisfy general creditor's claims which aggregated something like $400,000. Remarks: There evidently was no provision for the common shares of the company and on December 15, 1926, 200 shares of common and 233 shares of preferred were sold at auction for $3 the lot.

Interstate Clay & Mineral Co. New Jersey charter revoked for non-payment of annual registration fee for two years January 5, 1909.

Interstate Gasoline Company. Capital stock—Company was organized under the laws of Delaware and on September 13, 1924, was placed in the hands of receivers, Tumulty and Colwall, 347 Madison Avenue, New York City. Interim receipts were issued as a temporary receipt for the first mortgage convertible 7 per cent. bonds due 1927, but the management never arrived at the stage whereby they could issue the permanent bond certificates. The office of the receiver advises that the bankruptcy proceedings will be concluded within the next month and that it is extremely doubtful whether or not there will be sufficient cash realized from the assets of the bankrupt to pay off the full expenses of the reeciership—creditors will, we are advised, be wiped out and nothing will be paid on the interim reecipts representing the bonds. We believe the capital stock valueless at the present time.

Investors Research Syndicate. A trust agreement dated February 15, 1922, of the Investors Research Syndicate was recorded in Cook County, Illinois on December 6, 1922, as Document No. 7738224. The following persons were reported to be the organizers of same: William E. Knight, Dr. F. G. Hulbert and Henry Hulbert of Chicago. Dr. Francis Gage Hulbert resides at 1457 E. 66th Place, Chicago at the present time. We understand that Dr. Hulbert and his son Henry Hulbert merely signed papers as accommodation trustees, that all three might acknowledge before a notary. The Hulberts subsequently signed resignations and had no further connections with the company. Mr. A. G. Hulbert informs us that he drew up papers for Mr. Knight which he took with him. He was to return for the share book and seal presumably to open up an office in Chicago, but he never returned. Seven years have elapsed and nothing has been heard from him. Mr. Hulbert does not believe there were any assets beyond the good will of some established salesmanship business. In view of the foregoing we do not believe this certificate has any value at the present time.

Irish Republic. Bonds dated January, 1920, par $50. There were about 300,000 of these bonds sold originally beginning back in 1919, and the money paid for the bonds was in the nature of denotation to a certain subscription in order to assist the Irish Republic. There has been no interest paid on the bonds, and a Bondholders' Committee has been formed known as the Receipts of the Irish Republic Loans with an office at 117 Liberty Street, New York City. This committee has asked for the deposit of claims or bonds and to date approximately 115,000 owners have deposited. Such deposits were first called for January 1, 1928, and subsequently extended to May 15, 1928, and we understand that they may be deposited now. We understand that there is $2,600,000 held by the court for the benefit of the holders of these claims or bonds which will be distributed eventually to the depositing bondholders proving their claims. The whole matter has been uncertain for some years and naturally there has been no market or demand for the bonds. What the holders will eventually get or when, it is impossible to estimate, but there is no market today, and as the situation has remained unchanged for a year or more, we believe the above bonds have only a nominal value.

Jerome Victor Extension Copper Company. Incorporated Arizona, 1916. Capital: $1,000,000; 450,000 issued of which 250,000 are offered at par. Par $1. Registrar: State Savings Bank, Laurium, Mich. Officer: Laurium, Mich. Mine: Jerome, Arizona. Officers: Jas. T. Fisher, pres.; Brainard Avery, vice-pres.; J. P. Paton, secy.; J. P. Peterinan, treas. Property: 160 acres adjoining United Verde on the northwest. Remarks: Is a reorganization of the Haynes Copper Company which succeeded the Jerome Mines Development Company. Excessive flow of water encountered in a drill hole forced the former management to close down the property in 1914. Operation resumed in 1916 was a J. A. Minnear Company promotion. Property sold in October, 1917, to the West United Verde Copper Company. Shares were exchanged on a ratio of 5 of the new company for 1 of the old. In 1919 the mine was again under water. The company was over capitalized. In November, 1919, the United States Extension Company offered $250,000 for the property and it was being transferred when certain shareholders thought the price was too low, and started injunction proceedings against the sale, but it was carried out. We have communicated with the new company and they inform us that stock of the Jerome Victor Extension is without value.

Johnstone Tire & Rubber Company. Incorporated in Arizona about 1914. Capital stock $2,500,000. Par value $1. History: This company was originally organized as the Globe Tire Company, under the laws of Arizona. It derives its name from Samuel Johnstone, who is alleged to have been the inventor of a hard rubber tire which had the resiliency of a tube. Company's factory was located at La Porte, Indiana. We understand that the company started manufacturing tires about 1918. This stock was never favorably looked upon as an investment and proved to be an unfortunate one for many. In 1928, company was succeeded by the La Porte Rubber Company. We do not locate any market for stock in the successor company at the present time.

Jones, Gott Company. We understand that this company was a syndicate which accepted money for speculating purposes and guaranteed a dividend of 1 per cent. monthly. It was reported to be nothing else than a "discretionary pool" where the choice of stocks as well as the buying and selling of same was left to the one in control. Company's organization was certified by the State of Massachusetts on January 26, 1906, and reported a capital stock of $50,000 with $31,210 outstanding. Company reported of 1908 to the Secretary of State showing assets of machinery, merchandise, material and stock in process to the amount of $1,000, a profit and loss of $5,210. Good will was valued to the amount of $25,000, making a total of $31,210 against liabilities of capital stock to the amount issued of $31,210. The only real assets being the merchandise, stock in process, etc., of $1,000, the company's liabilities far exceeded them. Such "discretionary" or "blind" pools have rarely been successful for a long period of time. Jones, Gott Company were not members of any exchange and we do not locate any quotations or sales of this stock. Company was dissolved in 1910 and we do not attach any value to the stock.

MEN often leave behind them quantities of worthless stock certificates. Every occurrence of that kind stresses the need for life insurance. Had they put their faith in insurance, their estates would have had cash in hand when needed.

Jones, L. D., Company. Company was organized under the laws of the State of New Jersey on May 9, 1901, with an authorized capital stock of $500,000, outstanding $100,000, par $10. Company was organized to operate on a co-operative plan recognizing the right of a physician to profit by the sales he creates. The Company endeavored to dispose of its stock to Doctors so as to promote the sale of its product. In 1918 a reorganization was proposed which provided for the exchange of this stock for that of the John Talbet Co. which had been organized under the laws of Delaware to succeed the L. D. Jones Co. On February 19, 1919, the New Jersey charter of the L. D. Jones Co. was forfeited for non-payment of taxes and the Delaware charter of the John Talbet Co., Inc. was also proclaimed repealed for non-payment of two years' taxes January 26, 1926. We consider the stock of both companies to be valueless.

Kansas City Joint Stock Land Bank. Chartered under the Federal Farm Loan Act, January 5, 1918 as the Liberty Joint Stock Land Bank; title changed to above on May 18, 1922. Capital stock authorized: $3,800,000. Outstanding: $3,800,000. $3,479,900 has par value of $100, and $320,100 has $5 par. Dividends paid since organization. 1919-1921 (inclusive) 6 per cent.; 1922, 6½ per cent; 1923 and 1924, 9 per cent. 1925, 10 per cent.; 1926, 8 per cent.; none thereafter. Receivership: W. R. Compton was named receiver on May 4, 1927. Receivership followed refusal of the U. S. Treasury Department and the Farm Loan Board to sanction a relief loan to the bank. The bank did not have on hand sufficient funds to pay interest on bonds, May 1, 1927. On February 8, 1928, the Farm Loan Board Committee announced the appointment of H. M. Langworthy as receiver, effective February 15, 1928, succeeding W. R. Compton, who resigned. On December 31, 1928, the total assets of the bank were $50,406,393.44 and the total liabilities were $48,042,910.04. These statements are based on book values only. The receiver of this bank is now preparing a report for publication, which he expects to have ready sometime during the month. If your client is a registered stockholder, a copy of this report will be sent to him. Mr. Langworthy may be reached by addressing Kansas City Joint Stock Land Bank, Kansas City, Missouri.

Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company. Organized in Kansas in 1900. Company issued $24,538,000 first mortgage 4 per cent. fifty-year gold bonds, due February 1, 1951. On March 7, 1912, a receiver was appointed. On July 6, 1914, the property of the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway Company was sold under foreclosure and purchased on behalf of the reorganization committee, who organized the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railroad, Inc., on July 7, 1914. In the reorganization, the holder of each $1,000 Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railway first mortgage 4 per cent. bond, upon payment of $600 cash, received $600 Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad first mortgage fifty-year 5 per cent. bonds; 1,000 Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad Company 5 per cent. preferred stock; 1,000 Kansas City, Mexico & Orient common stock. Privilege to make this exchange ceased January 31, 1916. Subsequently the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railroad Company bonds went to default and sold at auction at $40 a lot for $7,800 par value bonds. We have received information from persons familiar with the affairs of this company, that as a result of the foreclosure in March, 1925, the funds realized were not sufficient to make payments to the holders of common and preferred stock. We therefore, believe these securities to be without value at the present time. Certain bonds believed to have value.

The real estate bonds of this company, dated at Kansas City, Missouri, October 10, 1889, and payable five years after date, do not appear to have any value. Interest on these bonds was payable at the National Bank of Kansas City, which failed and assessed its stockholders 75 per cent. The Winner Investment Company which was said to have negotiated these securities also failed. The collateral, held by the American Loan & Trust Company, a Boston corporation, placed by the Winner Investment Company as security, amounting to 25 per cent. of the face value of outstanding bonds, was sold. Ex-Mayor Moore of Kansas City, Missouri, was president of this company when bonds were first issued. All of these companies went out of existence during the panic of 1887 to 1891.

Kansas & Gulf Company. Incorporated December 15, 1919, in Delaware and succeeded as of December 31, 1919, to the business of the Kansas & Gulf Producing & Refining Company. On November 15, 1920 company entered into an agreement to purchase the entire interests of the firm of Staley, Langford & Chenault, of Wichita Falls, Texas, for a consideration of $4,750,000, the balance of which was to be paid off in monthly instalments to and including June 30, 1924. As of August 30, 1921, company owned a total of 78,841 acres of oil and gas fee and leaseholds both producing and non-producing in Kansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas and Alabama. In January, 1921, company announced it had bought a Mexican company owning certain rich properties in Mexico and thereupon changed the name of it to the Kansas & Gulf Petroleum Company of Mexico, 108,400 acres in Mexico heretofore owned by the Kansas & Gulf Company (of Delaware) were transferred to this Mexican compnay. Since it is not convenient for American citizens as individuals to own stock in a Mexican company a holding company was incorporated January 22, 1921, in Delaware called the Central Mexican Oil Company with 1,000,000 shares of $10 par value and the Kansas & Gulf Company of Delaware subsequently transferred to this company all of its right, title and interest in the Kansas Gulf & Petroleum Company of Mexico for 300,000 of these shares, fully paid. The remaining 700,000 shares were reserved for future development. About 225,000 shares were distributed as a stock dividend to stockholders of Kansas Gulf Company (of Delaware) in proportion of one share of stock of the Central Mexican Oil Company to each 5 shares of Kansas & Gulf of record March 15, 1921. The balance of 75,000 shares remained in the treasury of Kansas & Gulf Company. On June 30, 1921, company acquired the $3,000,000 capital stock of the Southern Oil Corporation by the exchange of 300,000 shares of stock of company par value $10 each for 30,000 shares of stock of the Southern Oil Corporation, par value $100 each. Capital stock of the Kansas & Gulf Company consisted of $15,000,000 authorized and outstanding par value $10 each. Transfer agent: Guaranty Trust Company of New York. Registrar: New York Trust Co. Keokuk & Des Moines Railway. 5 per cent. first mortgage bonds. These bonds in the amount of $2,750,000 authorized and issued are dated September 20, 1878, due October 1, 1923; Farmers Loan & Trust Company of New York City, trustee. The Keokuk and De Moines Railway Company was chartered December 31, 1873, and was leased to the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway Company for 45 years from October 1, 1878, at 25 per cent. of gross earnings, guaranteed to equal interest on bonds. During the receivership of the C. R. I. & P. Railway Company this road was operated as a separate property and with the dismissal of the C. R. I. & P. Railway receivership, effective June 25, 1917, the operation of the road was again taken over by the C. R. I. & P. Railway under the terms of the contract of 1878. This lease expired December 31, 1923. On October 1, 1923, the Keokuk & Des Moines Railway defaulted in the payment of the principal due that day in its $2,750,000 first mortgage 5 per cent. bonds. October 11, 1923, the Farmers Loan & Trust Company, trustee under the mortgage, filed its foreclosure bill in the U. S. District Court of Iowa, Central Division, which court on December 5, 1923, appointed receivers. On September, 1923, bondholders were requested to deposit their bonds not later than October 20, 1923 (further extended to April 30, 1924) with the Farmers Loan & Trust Company of New York, depository. A bondholders committee was formed with Frederick J. Lisman, chairman and with H. C. McLaren, No. 20 Exchange Place, New York City, secretary. The entire property was sold at foreclosure August 18, 1924, for $1,250,000. Under the plan of reorganization dated July 15, 1921, of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway, each certificate of deposit representing Keokuk & Des Moines Railway Company, first mortgage 5 per cent. bonds was exchanged par for par, for Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway first and refunding 4 per cent. bonds, due 1934 and interest at 4 per cent. from October 1, 1923. Holders of Keokuk & Des Moines Railway 5 per cent. first mortgage bonds not entering into the reorganization should present their bonds with coupons to the Bankers Trust Compayn of Des Moines, Iowa and receive approximately $641.59 for each $1,000 par value bond, in final liquidation.

A SUCCESSFUL business is often crippled by the necessity of settling with the heirs of a deceased partner. Life Insurance provides for this and enables the business to continue without depletion of its working capital.

Company on the basis of one share of King Solomon Mining Company for each five shares of King Solomon Tunnel & Development Company, upon the payment of ½ cent a share on each share of old stock. There is no provision made that there is still opportunity to exchange shares in the old company for those in the new company and we are informed that it would be only on a special arrangement authorized by the Board of Directors of the present company, providing they would make such authorization, that such an exchange could be made. No such privilege has ever been granted, but the president of the King Solomon Mining Company, 526 Mining Exchange Building, Denver, Colorado, advises that it has always been the policy of the management to protect and conserve any rights or moral interests which stockholders in the old company may have had and he suggests that any holder of the old stock write direct to the present company, advising the amount of old stock held and stating a desire to make the exchange, and the matter will be brought to the attention of the Board for such action as they desire to take. The stock of the King Solomon Mining Company is assessable and there have been eight assessments of five cents each or a total of 40 cents a share and such assessments would have to be provided for in arranging the exchange of old stock for new.

Kokomo-Recen Mining & Dredging Corporation. Organization: Company was organized under the laws of Delaware in February, 1920, as a consolidation of the National Molybdenum Company and the National Mining & Development Company. Capital stock: Authorized $2,500,000. Par $1.00. Property: 42 lode and 5 placer claims, 4 groups: (1) Molybdenum claim, 206 acres near Winfield, Chaffee County. (2) Big Chicago Group, Iowa Gulch near Leadville, Lake County. (3) McNulty Gulch placer, Tennile, district Summit County. (4) Herculean Bar placer at Kokomo, Summit County, all in Colorado. Officers: Harold R. Pillinger, president and director, Chicago; Herman Frank, vice president and director, Chicago; Louis G. Kohler, secretary and director, Chicago; J. C. Hollister, treasurer and director, Chicago; Henry A. Recen, director, Kokomo, Colorado. Office: 704 Canadian Pacific Building, New York, New York. Mine address: Martin L. Bart, manager, Kokomo, Colorado. Remarks: The Kokomo-Recen Mining & Dredging Corporation was organized as a consolidation of the National Molybdenum Co., and the National Mining & Development Company. The capital stock of the new company was first offered by Kohler & Company, 5205 West Lake Street, Chicago, Ill. at 50 cents a share in March, 1921, but at the present time we do not find that these promoters are in business. These promoters and also the management of the company have, in the past, made rather extravagant claims as to the condition of the mines, but of course, this can be subjected to considerable questioning. When the capital stock was originally offered the promoters claimed that they were actually selling the stock for half its real value and it was further claimed that the stock would sell for double the amount paid for it within sixty days. Measure such exaggerations with the following statement contained in the promoters' circular: "If you have suffered a loss at the hands of some irresponsible smooth-tongued broker this letter should be of some interest to you, because you naturally are still in hopes of some day overcoming that loss by making the right kind of an investment. For this you cannot be blamed. It is the only way to play the game. If you will just listen this once and have confidence you will be justified in believing that all men are not liars. You will make good this time." One of the qualifications necessary to join the ranks of the fools is to believe such talk. All of the promoters literature indicated an extreme desire to get a person's money and get it quickly, the corporation even agreeing to pay the expenses from any point in the United States to the property and return, to any one willing to purchase $1,000 worth of the capital stock. The purchase of this stock has always been regarded as a speculation of questionable merit. The company is not located in the Canadian Pacific Building, New York City, and so far as the records of this building are concerned never was located in that building and we cannot find any other possible address in New York City. Brokers specializing in all kinds of unlisted stocks state that they do not know of any market for the stock of this company and there are no public quotations or sales.

Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company. Organized May 12, 1910, in West Virginia and took over property formerly owned by the Lackawanna Coal & Land Company, Crescent Coal & Lumber Company and the Coal Valley Land Company, comprising 23,000 acres of coal and timber lands in Boone, Clay and Nicholas counties, West Virginia. Also 98 per cent. of the capital stock of the Paint Creek Collieries Company having leases on 14,235 acres of coal lands in Fayette and Kanawha Counties, West Virginia. Company was also interested in the Griffith Collieries Company and the Highland Lumber Company. Capital stock authorized and outstanding $12,000,000, par $25. The bonded debt consisted of the following issues and amounts: $2,500,000 Lackawanna Coal & Land Company Consolidated 5's being a first mortgage on property formerly owned by this company. $2,500,000 Crescent Coal & Lumber Company, first 5's being a first mortgage on property formerly owned by this company. $12,026,550 Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company, Consolidated sinking fund 6's dated April 1, 1911; due April 1, 1961. Interest April and October 1, at Republic Trust Company of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, trustee. Authorized $15,000,000 secured by mortgage on all real estate owned subject to above prior issues. On September 30, 1914, holders of these bonds were requested to forward the October 1, 1914, coupons to the company and receive 10 year 6 per cent. convertible trust notes of the Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company. $1,600,000 Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company, ten year 6 per cent. convertible trust notes dated October 1, 1914, due October 1, 1924. Interest May and November first, at Republic Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, trustee. These notes were secured by deposit with the trustee of Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company Consolidated 6's dated 1911. During 1916, the bondholders were advised that the company was going to be placed in the hands of a receiver following which a bondholders committee was formed in February, 1917. This committee reported that default had been made in the provisions of the Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company, Consolidated Mortgage dated 1911 and also in the provisions of the underlying mortgages, viz. Lackawanna Coal & Land Company and the Crescent Coal & Land Company and also in the Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company, ten year 6 per cent. convertible notes dated October 1, 1914. Bondholders were requested to deposit their bonds as follows: Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company Consolidated Sinking Fund 6's dated 1911 and the ten year 6 per cent. Convertible Notes dated 1914, with the Republic Trust Company, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, depository. In the reorganization that followed, the Federal Coal Company was organized on April 20, 1918, in West Virginia and immediately acquired at foreclosure sale, all properties and assets of the Lackawanna Coal and Lumber Company. The Federal Coal Company bonded debt consisted of the following: $390,000 Federal Coal Company First Sinking Fund 7's due December 1, 1929. $320,000 Federal Coal Company, General & Refunding 6's due November 1, 1935. $2,602,440 Federal Coal Company, Fifty year 5 per cent. Income Debentures dated December 1, 1919, due December 1, 1969. Authorized $3,000,000. Republic Trust Company of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, trustee. Under the Plan of Reorganization of the Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company, it was reported that approximately $8,000,000 of the Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company bonds were deposited for which certificates of deposit were issued and in accordance with the plan, certificates of deposit representing Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company Consolidated 6's dated 1911 received 25 per cent. in Federal Coal Company fifty year 5 per cent. Income Debentures dated 1919, and certificates of deposit representing Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company ten year 6 per cent. Convertible Notes dated 1914, received 33¼ per cent. in Federal Coal Company, fifty year 5 per cent. Income Debentures, dated 1919. Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company bondholders and note holders not depositing their bonds and notes under this plan of reorganization were entirely wiped out and such outstanding securities are of no value, as the price obtained for the property at foreclosure sale in April, 1918, was such that there was nothing for distribution to non-depositing bondholders, after taxes, expenses and underlying liens were provided for. Mr. H. R. Van Densen, Scranton Life Building, Scranton, Pennsylvania, was counsel for the bondholders committee. The capital stock of the Lackawanna Coal & Lumber Company was wiped out through the foreclosure sale and subsequent reorganization.

Lamson & Hubbard Canadian Company, Ltd. Incorporated November 13, 1918, in Canada, to take over the Canadian fur trading interests of the Lamson & Hubbard Corporation consisting of nine fur trading posts in the Mackenzie River Region. During 1919 a transportation system was installed enabling the company to control the transport of its own goods from McMurray, the rail terminal, down the Athabasca and Mackenzie Rivers to the Arctic Ocean. The business of the company consisted chiefly in the purchase at wholesale of merchandise, which was distributed at the company's various trading posts and exchanged for raw furs, which were sold in the leading fur markets. Capital stock authorized $3,375,000 common and $1,500,000 8 per cent. cumulative convertible preferred, par $100, outstanding $1,875,000 common, $1,500,000 common stock held in treasury for the conversion of the preferred stock. The unissued common shares were reserved for the conversion of the preferred stock also. The preferred stock was convertible at any time into common stock share for share and is callable at 110 and accrued dividends. Annual sinking fund provided, being 2 per cent. of maximum of preferred stock issued. Transfer agents: State Street Trust Company, Boston, Massachusetts. Preferred dividends were paid quarterly J. A. J. & O first. The preferred stock was first publicly offered ($500,000) in January, 1920, at par and accrued dividend with 25 per cent. bonus. This company it is reported has not had any recent connection with the Lamson & Hubbard Corporation. We have no recent information pertaining to this company and the last quotations are reported at auction as follows: On November 17, 1923, 50 shares of common sold at $50 the lot and 3 shares sold at $1 the lot on December, 1923. 200 shares of preferred and 200 shares of common sold at $1 the lot on June 9, 1927. Officers: Richard Harte, president; James Pike, treasurer; Jarvis Lamson, vice president; J. Kolby Bassett, secretary. Directors: John P. Bowditch, R. M. H. Harper, Jarvis Lamson, James Pike, F. Douglas Cochrane, Chandler Harvey, S. St. John Morgan, M. S. Wheelwright. Office: 60 State Street. Richard Harte, president of the Lamson & Hubbard

Canadian Company, Ltd., advises us that the Lamson & Hubbard loan, originally made by the Merchants Bank of Canada, which bank was taken over by the Bank of Montreal in 1923, was called, necessitating the Lamson & Hubbard Canadian Company making an assignment to creditors. Its assets were sold about May, 1923, to Lamson's, Ltd. The current liabilities exceeded the assets and therefore none of the sale price came through to the preferred and common stockholders of the company. We therefore submit the preferred and common stocks of the Lamson & Hubbard Canadian Company, Ltd., as valuless after May, 1923.

La Natividad Mining Company. Organized with $1,500,000 capital stock, shares $10 par. Owned 247 acres of mineral lands adjoining the Dona Louisa and Santa Emilia mines at Coapa, in the municipality of Acaton, District of Morelia, Michoacan, Mexico. Property slightly developed by a 100 foot shaft. Robert E. Crutchfield was given as president and Manuel L. Ward, as secretary. Had an office about 1905 at 21 Park Row. Company made grossly exaggerated statements in its advertising, paid dividends from stock sales and was regarded with suspicion. Was consolidated about 1907 with the Dona Louisa Copper & Gold Mining Co. to form the Dona Louisa Copper Co.

Landover Holding Corporation. Received from committee, subject to certain contingent liabilities, 150,000 shares of common stock of Willys-Overland Company. There will also be transferred to this corporation all shares of 1st preferred stock participating in the plan. Landover Holding Corporation will thus hold for the benefit of participants under the plan 150,000 shares of common stock of Willys-Overland Company and will also hold the 1st preferred stock deposited under the plan and will therefore receive any distribution which may be made by the receivers on account of such stock. The Irving Trust Company, 60 Broadway, New York City, was appointed agent to distribute $18 a share to holders of Class A stock. Class A stock also we believe received one share of Willys-Overland stock for each share held. If you keep in touch with W. Ainsworth Parker, 937 Calvert Bldg., Baltimore, Md., you will know if any further distribution is to be made.

La Porte Oil & Refining Corporation. The corporation defaulted in the payment of interest on its 5-year notes on October 1, 1920, and principal on October 1, 1924. On October 25, 1924, a receiver was appointed and steps were taken to liquidate the corporation's assets. Messrs. Goldman & Unger, 120 Broadway, New York City, attorneys who had charge of the noteholders' interests, advise that the proceeds from the sale of these assets were insufficient to cover the expenses of receivership and the cost of the sale and, consequently, nothing was available for distribution to the stockholders. Inquiries here fail to reveal a market for this stock and, accordingly, it appears that the stock has little, if any, monetary value.

La Republica de Cuba. The bonds of 1869 are like stock certificates and have no coupons attached; denominations are $100 (black); $1000 (green) and $5000 (dark brown). The green are frequently seen, while the others are quite rare. The authorized issue of the green bonds was $20,000,000 but only $4,000,000 were ever signed and issued. Upon these bonds is printed in Spanish on the face and in English on the back a statement that they shall be payable ten years after the recognition of the independence of Cuba by the United States, payment being pledged in the name of Carlos Manuel de Cespedes, President of the Republic. The following is a copy of this statement: "The Republic of Cuba, through Jose Morales Lemus, President of the Central Republican Junta of Cuba and Porto Rico acting under special authority hereby acknowledges itself bound to the bearer in the sum of $1000 with interest thereon at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum from the date hereof, said interest to be paid at the times and upon the conditions following, viz: After the ratification of a treaty of peace between the Government of Spain and the Republic of Cuba or after the overthrow of the authority of the Spanish Government in the Island of Cuba or after the recognition by the Government of the United States of America of the political independence of the Island of Cuba, and on the 31st day of July of the year succeeding that on which such ratification, overthrow of Spanish authority or recognition of independence shall take place, the said Republic will pay in the City of New York the interest then accrued thereon and thereafter will so pay as well the interest accruing hereon, semi-annually on the 31st days of January and July in each year, as the said principal sum of $1000 ten years after the first payment of interest. The Government of said Republic reserves the right to pay the principal hereon on any interest day succeeding the first payment of interest. And to the performance and payment of this obligation the honor and faith of the people of Cuba is hereby pledged in the name of Carlos Manuel de Cespeder, President of the Republic. New York, 31st day of June, A. D. 1869." The signers of these 1869 bonds were prominent Cuban patriots and for many years these bonds had a speculative value based upon the theory that in time the constitution might be modified and some settlement made on them. The Cuban Constitution contains this paragraph: "The Republic of Cuba will recognize no debts or obligations save those legitimately contracted for the purposes of the revolution by the Generals of the Army of Liberation, subsequent to the 24th of February, 1895, and prior to the 19th of September of the same year, the date on which the Constitution Jimaguaya was promulgated and the debts and obligations that the Revolutionary Government has since contracted itself or by its authorized representatives abroad." The old bonds issued by the former Juntas under revolutionary movements which failed may be divided into those issued from 1850 to 1863 and those issued from 1869 to 1873. The issues of the first division are rare, and are valuable only as curiosities. Some of these bonds were issued in regular bond form with coupons attached and some similar to stock certificates and so far as ascertainable no interest was ever paid on any of these issues. The question of the validity of these old repudiated bonds has arisen from time to time in the press and in October, 1915, there was the following: "Cuba Refuses Bonds of 1872. Will Not Pay Bonds Issued For The Ten Years' War. That the only bond issues recognized by the present Cuban Government are those of 1896 and 1897 is the statement of the Department of State in answer to the query of a Cuban named Alberto Jose Maria in Rio de Janeiro, who possesses a $100 bond of the Cuban loan of 1872. The Department of State referred the communication from the Cuban minister in Brazil in behalf of Jose Maria to the Department of Finance, Section of Debts, but that department said they already had enough to worry about without taking the responsibility for the loans made for the War of 1868." Therefore it is generally conceded that the Republic of Cuba 7 per cent. bonds dated 1869 are absolutely without further value.

Leeds & Catlin Company. This business was started in 1892 by Leeds & Walcott and succeeded in 1899 by Leeds & Catlin Co. Capital originally $10,000, increased from time to time up to 1907. It was then $1,000,000. Company were manufacturers and wholesale dealers in discs and cylinder records for talking machines and phonographs, one of the largest and best known in this line of business. About 1909 the Victor Talking Machine Co. brought suit against this company for infringement of patents. In April, 1909, U. S. Supreme Court gave an adverse decision. Purchasers of records, etc., with bills outstanding refused payment of same, the result being that the company defaulted in its bond interest and receiver was appointed June, 1908. In October, 1912, it was reported that the company discontinued manufacturing records in its Middletown factory and the building and equipment were offered at public auction. Officers were: Frank P. Byrne, president; I. Allen Sankey and Louis F. Wilson, secretaries; Henry Leeds, treasurer. Company maintained an office at 53 East 11th St., New York City until about 1908. No further record of an existing New York office is reported. We understand that company's affairs have been wound up and as stock has been reported as having no value in other proceedings we believe these shares to be worthless.

Liberty Starters Corporation. Company was organized October 4, 1918, in New York, and had outstanding approximately $1,000,000 common and $1,000,000 preferred. Company manufactured starters for aeroplanes and automobiles and other automobile accessories, with a factory at Poughkeepsie. Placed in the hands of a receiver in United States District Court by Judge Julius M. Mayer, in an equity proceeding instituted by Fred S. Taggart as trustee for Howard S. Borden, the principal creditor. The petition for receiver alleged that the corporation received about $700,000 for the stock sold and has still due it $92,000 on stock subscriptions. The company's factory at Poughkeepsie was valued at $102,000 over and above a mortgage of $28,000. Current liabilities were estimated at $62,000, while its books showed a book value for the patent rights to the starters, which it manufactured, of $1,000,000. Judge Mayer appointed James J. Lyons and John Inwood as receivers in a joint bond of $100,000 on March 23, 1921. Last-known officers were: D. G. Maynard, president; R. H. Eggleston, treasurer; E. H. Stickles, secretary. Office, 5 Columbus Circle, New York, 1920. There have been no sales or quotations of the company's stock since receivership and in 1923 it was reported that the company was out of existence. Preferred, A. H. Mueller, December 27, 1924, at auction. 50 at $1 lot.

reports $2,401,600. In 1921 control of the Lig-Mar Coal Mining Co. was acquired by the Ligny-Marshall Coal Company, Inc. At this time the 10 per cent. accumulative preferred shares of the controlling company, par $10, were offered in exchange for the common stock, par $1, of the controlled company on a par for par basis. An office was reported at 70 Wall Street in 1923, according to our records, after which it was evidently abandoned as we find no further record of a New York office after this time. A dividend of 2 per cent. was paid on May 15, 1920. None since. Last quotation of stock, according to our records, occurred on December 9, 1924, when there was a bid of .00¼ and an offer of .02. We believe the company has dropped out of existence and the stock valueless at this time. Last officers reported were: Mr. Ernest B. deLigny, president; James Marshall and Rene Brunet, vice-presidents; and Ernest B. deLigny, Jr., secretary.

Londonderry Iron & Mining Company. Incorporated under the laws of Canada. Owned an iron plant and ore deposits covering about 26,000 acres of land located at Londonderry, Canada. Was controlled by the Canada Iron Corporation, Ltd., through ownership of a majority of its capital stock. Had $1,000,000 bond issue. Went into the hands of receivers and in December, 1915, the property was sold at sheriff's sale for $107,850, these funds and a comparatively small sum received through the sale of machinery, etc., being the only assets available for distribution among bondholders.

Londonderry Mining Company. After looking through all the records of the M. S. Financial Library we find but one reference in 1895 regarding a Londonderry mine which was as follows: The collapse of the much boomed Londonderry Mine in Coolgardie was a blow to the mining market. A telegram from Lord Fingal says, "Regret to inform you that Richchutes of ore opened, very bad indeed, does not appear to be practically anything important left, continuing exploration work, but the aspect of affairs is very discouraging." The result of this telegram has been a fall in the value of the shares which will net a loss of over half a million sterling to the shareholders. In our opinion there is no value to attach to the Londonderry Mining Company, as we find no direct reference to that Company, and it probably was incorporated and went out of existence many years ago.

Lone Star Oil and Gas Lease Syndicate. Organized in 1922 with a capitalization of $75,000 with a par value of $1 per unit for the original purpose of drilling one oil well on a lease located in McMullen County, Texas, and for the further purpose of acquiring oil and gas leases of 1,500 acres in McMullen County, 900 acres in Pecos County and 100 acres in Limestone County, all of Texas. It was further stipulated that the drilling of the well in McMullen County should begin on or before March 1, 1922. This syndicate was promoted from Baltimore, Maryland, with Lynn Glover, Fiscal and C. D. Pruden, trustee, 829 Equitable Building, Baltimore, Maryland. The Calvert Building and Construction Company of Baltimore, Maryland, owners and operators of the Equitable Building of Baltimore, advise neither C. D. Pruden or the Lone Star Oil & Gas syndicate leased space in said building, but that both were in the building as sub tenants about 1922, since when Mr. Pruden has died. No further trace of the syndicate can be found and nothing is known of the concern in the oil districts of Texas, so that we presume it has become defunct and the units in our opinion are of no value.

The officers were last reported as follows: Thomas Hampton, Chevy Chase, D. C., president; T. E. Hampton, Chevy Chase, D. C., vice-president; O. I. Plager, 1436 Meridian 91, N. W., Washington, D. C., secretary and treasurer. We have written to these officers but have not received any answer. There are no quotations of this stock in the open market and we believe, since the company has no longer any legal existence, that the stock is valueless at the present time.

Louisiana Timber Corporation. Owned 939,000 acres of timber lands. Location not reported. Went into the hands of a receiver and in March, 1915, was sold for $200,000.

Louisville, New Albany & Chicago Railway Company. Chartered in May, 1881, as a consolidation of a company of the same name and the Chicago & Indianapolis Air Line Ry. Co. Operated 451.14 miles of road extending from New Albany to Michigan City and from State Line to Indianapolis, Indiana. Owned the Bedford & Bloomfield R. R. and the Orleans, West Baden & French Lick Springs Ry. Had outstanding $17,600 old stock, $8,986,800 common stock, $6,995,600 preferred stock and $13,800,000 bonds. In August, 1896, a receiver was appointed following an unexpected judicial decision in an appeal from various suits arising from an alleged guarantee by the company of bonds of the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine & Beattyville R. R. Property was sold under foreclosure in March, 1897, and purchased in the interests of the bondholders who organized the Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville Ry. Co., as successor. The reorganization plan made no provision for the stock.

Louisville, New Albany & St. Louis Air Line Ry. Co. Incorporated: Indiana, February 24, 1869 and Illinois, April 1, 1869. Capital authorized, $3,000,000; subscribed, $2,107,100; paid in, $1,873,-526.27. Funded Debt: $1,137,000 first mortgage 7 per cent. bonds dated July 1, 1872, due July 1, 1892. Office: New Albany, Indiana. Remarks: Road in receivers' hands on July 1, 1875. Indiana portion sold under foreclosure June 20, 1876, for $18,000 and transferred to a new company for $1,280,665 in bonds and coupons. The Illinois division was sold for $5,000 and reorganized January 3, 1878 as the St. Louis, Mt. Carmel & New Albany Railroad Company. These two companies consolidated under the name of Louisville, New Albany & St. Louis Railway on August 15, 1878. In October, 1881, this company consolidated with the Evansville, Rockport & Eastern Railway as the Louisville, Evansville & St. Louis Railway. By the terms of the consolidation bonds of the consolidated company to the extent of $900,000 were issued to holders of old bonds of the Evansville, Rockville & Eastern Railroad. We believe these old Louisville, New Albany & St. Louis Air Line Railway Company bonds are of no value at this time.

Lyons Petroleum Company. The Lyons Petroleum Company was incorporated under the laws of Delaware, December 22, 1919, with an authorized capital stock of 3,000,000 shares (all common stock) par value $1 per share. In 1922 there were 2,385,846 shares outstanding. An initial dividend of 2 cents per share was paid October 1, 1920 and quarterly thereafter to and including April 15, 1923. Company had substantial interest in approximately 35,000 acres of oil and gas lands. Officers were as follows: J. G. Rogers, president; C. E. Downing, vice-president; L. L. Cowley, secretary; L. L. Jobe, treasurer; J. G. Lyons, L. L. Cowley, F. C. Clark, H. E. Kennedy, C. E. Downing, H. H. Seaman, M. C. French, directors. In May, 1922, the Producers and Refiners Corp. acquired control of the Lyons Petroleum Company assuming management of properties and completely reorganized the company. Holders of the Lyons Petroleum stock were offered in exchange for their holdings the common stock, par $50, of Producers & Refiners Corp. on a basis of one share of the latter company stock for 50 shares of the former company, the exchange to be made on or before March 17, 1923. We suggest that you make inquiry of the Producers and Refiners Corporation in order to ascertain if the exchange of stock can still be made as provided by the reorganization. They are now located at California Bldg., Denver, Colorado.

M. V. All Weather Train Controller Company. The M. V. All Weather Train Controller Company changed its name to Burrows Train Control Co., in November, 1924, or about a year after the District Attorney gave the company's stock selling tactics and limited progress publicity that was probably no more unfavorable than the outlook for the company itself. The M. V. All Weather Train Controller Company went out of existence when the authorities halted a further sale of stock through injunction proceedings in the fall of 1923. The device which the old and the new company claim to have, have never been taken very seriously by railroads which would have been customers, and it has long been regarded that stock sales were the most important features of the business. The Burrows Train Control Company stock is quoted by brokers who deal in unlisted securities at around 10 to 15 cents per share.

Maggie Murphy Copper Company. Organized under the laws of Wyoming, in August, 1904, with an authorized capital stock of $1,000,000, par $1. Property described as consisting of 12 claims, 180 acres, and a 60-acre mill site in Horseshoe Canyon, in the Laramie Peak district, Albany County, Wyoming, reported to show granite, with greiss and schists, with 7 veins between greiss and mild-schists; one ranges 30 to 60 feet in width and shows covellite, borite and chalcopyite, with pyrrhetite. The development work on the property is reported to include 114 ft. shaft and various shallow workings. The only work done at this property for some years has been assessment work. Charles S. Ashley, the president, is located at New Bedford, Mass. There are no public sales or quotations for the capital stock which is not listed on any exchange. Apparently this property is merely a prospect and although organized back in 1904, little more than assessment work has been done at the property. Charter forfeited 1927.

Magma Chief Consolidated Copper Company. Incorporated in Nevada, 1922, as a reorganization of the Magma Chief Copper Company. This new company took over all assets of the old company for $52,530. Capitalization $2,000,000. Outstanding 1,680,000 shares. Par 50 cents. Officers: Geo. B. Thatcher, president M. F. Taylor, vice-president; Wm. Woodburn, secretary. Last reported address, Wm. Woodburn, room 8, Fordonia Bldg., Reno, Nevada. Property: 17 claims in Pioneer district and 12 claims in Bunker Hill district. This stock was last quoted in May 10, 1916, by Morris Stein of New York, when 1,000 shares were offered, at 5 cents with nothing bid. No market since that time.

Magma Chief Copper Company. Incorporated Arizona October 4, 1913. Capital stock $2,000,000, par value $1, non-assessable; 1,259,916 shares issued. Officers: George A. Johnson, president; K. Pomeroy, vice-president and general manager; F. T. Pomeroy, secretary and treasurer. Directors: The above officers, and D. D. Moffat and W. R. McDonald. Property: Owned 17 claims in Pioneer district, Pinal County. Examined by W. H. Hollis, F. M. Gordon and C. A. Kumke. The work on this property by tunnels and drill holes gave disappointing results. In December, 1918, the company acquired holdings of the Sombrero Butte Copper Company in the Copper Creek district, consisting of 9 claims, near Mammoth, Pinal County, and were being actively developed shortly after they were acquired. Remarks: Of all the claims, the Sombrero Butte mine seemed to have the appearance of good producing property; however, all operations were suspended October 26, 1920, and one year later a part of the Sombrero Butte mine was sold by the sheriff to satisfy a judgment, and a plan to reorganize and refinance company was in contemplation, and to this end stockholders' proxies were solicited on two different occasions, the last on December 1, 1921. In 1922, the company was reorganized under the name of Magma Chief Consolidated Copper Company. New company took over all assets of old company for $52,530 (or 875,494 of its shares). Stockholders of Magma Chief Copper Company received 3 cents per share of old company or exchanging two shares of old for one of new, plus a 3-cent assessment per share of new. This enabled new company to pay old company's debts amounting to over $15,000. New company stock pooled; the Reno National Bank being pool trustee. Assessment No. 2 of 3 cents a share delinquent May 15, 1924.

Magnalite Co., Inc., Seattle. Washington charter stricken from record for failure to pay taxes July 1, 1925.

Magnalite Process Company, Seattle. Washington charter stricken from record for failure to pay taxes July 1, 1925.

Magnate Copper Company. Organized November 19, 1916, in Delaware with authorized capital stock of $5,000,000, par $1; 2,499,500 shares in treasury. Empire Trust Company of New York, transfer agent. Property reported as 29 claims in Twin Butte district, Pima County, 32 miles from Tucson, Arizona, upon which only little development work was done. The last known officers (1921): C. Z. Jones, president; Carl M. Kneass, vice-president; J. R. Richards, secretary. In that year company had an office at 44 West Congress Street, Tucson, Arizona and in the Liberty Building, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. In 1925 company was described as "dead." The Delaware charter was repealed on January 23, 1924, at which time two years' taxes were unpaid. The capital stock was at one time traded on the New York Curb and sold in June, 1917, at $1 a share and in November, 1917, at 44 cents a share. In June, 1923, stock was offered for sale at 2 and 3 cents a share with no bids, and this is the last quotations reported. There is no present market for the stock and, as the company is dead and has forfeited its charter, we consider the stock of no value.

Maibohm Motors Company. Incorporated in Delaware on February 19, 1916, to take over the business and assets of the Maibohm Motors Company and the Maibohm Rubber Company. This company was succeeded by a company of the same name incorporated on February 1, 1917, in Maine (which see).

Maibohm Motors Company. Incorporated February 1, 1917, in Maine and took over business and assets of the Maibohm Wagon Company; business originally established in 1888 at Racine, Wisconsin. This company was succeeded by a company of the same name, incorporated in Ohio on February 10, 1920 (which see).

Maibohm Motors Company. Incorporated in Ohio on February 10, 1920, as successor to company of same name incorporated on February 1, 1917, in Maine. Capital stock consisted of an authorized amount of $2,500,000. Outstanding in last reports, $1,078,000. Par $10. Transfer agent: Equitable Trust Company, New York City. Dividends were inaugurated on stock of former company at rate of 6 per cent. in February, 1919, which rate was regularly paid thereafter. On stock of the successor company, an initial quarterly dividend of 2 per cent. was paid April 1, 1920; July 1, 1920, 2 per cent.; no cash payments thereafter. A stock dividend of 4 per cent. was paid December 15, 1920. The company has no funded debt. Company manufactured automobiles. Its former plant at Racine, Wisconsin, was almost entirely destroyed by fire on December 3, 1916, and having received an offer of a tract of land with a cash bonus from the City of Sandusky, they decided to move to that city. W. J. Corr was appointed receiver for the company in October, 1921. Assets were given as $759,124 and liabilities as $681,640. Plant and other property of the company at Sandusky, Ohio, were sold on May 15, 1922, under an order of the U. S. Court, by the receiver, to E. G. Kirby of Toledo, for $35,000, who, it is said, acted for the Arrow Manufacturing Company which was incorporated by local business men to buy in the property in the interest of creditors. Officers of the Maibohm Motors Company were as follows: H. C. Maibohm, president and general manager; F. W. Cushing, vice-president; W. C. Maibohm, vice-president. The foregoing and G. M. Zimmerman and M. A. Holton of Sandusky, Ohio, were directors. King, Ramsey & Flynn, Sandusky, Ohio, attorneys for the receiver of the Maibohm Motors Company, advise us that the receiver has been discharged and there was nothing left for the stockholders. They also state that the Currier Motors, not the Arrow, was the successor to the Maibohm Motors, was financed by local people. It also went into the hands of the receiver and the stockholders received nothing. Some of the men who were heavily interested bought the plant at the receiver's sale, and they still have it on their hands and, we understand, will no doubt take a terrific loss.

Manitou Mineral Water Company. Incorporated September 15, 1882, as the Manitou Mineral Water, Bath and Park Company. On July 6, 1888, assumed the present name. Capital: $100,000, par $25. With the change in name the capital stock was increased to $200,000, the par value remaining the same. On December 8, 1891, the capital stock was again increased, to $300,000, the par value as before. On March 20, 1893, the capital stock was increased to $1,000,000 and the par value was changed to $100. Of the 11,000,000 authorized, $369,268 was outstanding. Funded debt, $80,000 first mortgage 7s, due 1905, dated January 1, 1890. $70,000 Second Mortgage 6s, due September 1, 1914. Dated September 1, 1894, $112,000 Income 6s, due within ten years. Dated March 2, 1896. $101,116.56 Income bonds were outstanding. Total funded debt: $251,116.56. Property: Mineral springs in Manitou, Colorado. Remarks: Incapable, from lack of experience, of foreseeing the delays and difficulties of supplanting inferior and cheaper waters than in use, the officers of the company entered into improvements, etc., involving enormous liabilities which the panic of 1892 found the company was unable to meet. To protect the interests, Mr. Ward Hund, general business manager, was appointed receiver on August 1, 1893. In April, 1894, he was succeeded by O. C. Townsend as receiver. Mr. Townsend held this office till July 1, 1896, when a settlement with the company's creditors was reached in a plan of reorganization dated August 1, 1895. The property, however, was foreclosed in 1899, and the stock was declared worthless. The Manitou Mineral Springs Company succeeded the earlier company. This latter company had only five or six shareholders and was capitalized for $600,000, $410,000 being issued. We can find no record of either company for many years and believe the latter one, also, has become obsolete.

Manoa Company of Venezuela. The property of the Manoa Company consisting of 15,000 acres of land on the Orinoco River was given on concession to Cerinais Fitzgerald, September 22, 1883. He subsequently formed a stock company and came to New York to float the shares. Part of this land is in the disputed territory and property has been in litigation several times and although it is said to abount with lakes, mines and lumber forests, it was with great difficulty that Fitzgerald sold even a few of the shares. The right and title of the estate of the Manoa Company was sold under order of court in Brooklyn on November 29, 1896. The price paid was $500. Upon the application of Randolph Stukney, John C. Eno was appointed referee. Mr. Eno reported that the company was in debt to the extent of $95,000 and upon the order of Judge Van Vyck of the Supreme Court, the property was put up for sale and purchased by W. M. Stafford and H. Baxter in behalf of the creditors. Since the price received for the property was so much less than the outstanding debt, we conclude that the stockholders did not share in any provisions.

Marilou Oil Company, Carson City, Nevada. Incorporated under the laws of Nevada and we find is delinquent in the amount of $15 for failure to file annual statement of officers and directors for 1927, 1928 and 1929. The following are the people named on the last list filed with the Secretary of State, 1926, 1927: W. A. Black, president, 4554 Beverly Blvd., Los Angeles, Calif.; J. S. Fagan, secretary-treasurer, Los Angeles, Calif.; P. B. Ellis, resident agent, Carson City, Nevada. A letter addressed to Mr. Black was returned marked "unknown." The Aldine Trust Company was trustee under the mortgage of the Marilou Oil Company, but resigned some time ago and advises us that, under the circumstances, they are unable to give any information regarding it. We believe that the company has dropped out of existence since they have neglected to file reports to the Secretary of State. As for the Marilou Estate, no information seems to be available pertaining to it. It, no doubt, is connected with the Marilou Oil Company and its present status might be judged to be the same as that of the oil company.

INSURANCE money always comes back when needed most—it is safe from loss or depreciation. Every man needs its protection for family and for business. It will fill his place so far as money can, when he is gone.

Company, N. Y. C. Officers: Lamar C. Mays, president; T. D. Tatum, vice-president; E. H. Blair, secretary and treasurer, New Orleans. Directors: The above and J. M. Blanche, Hammond, La.; J. R. Prez, New Orleans; W. A. Kraus, St. Louis, Mo. Main office in 1922: 407 S. Peters St., New Orleans. Mr. William P. O'Neal was trustee in bankruptcy many years ago. Mr. Delvaille H. Theard, an attorney of New Orleans, gave the following information several years ago: "Our investigation has developed that there were no substantial assets in this concern, but that it was a mere shell; and it is quite certain that there will never be any dividend for the stockholders. Indeed, it is unlikely that the bondholders will get anything." It seems, therefore, that neither the preferred nor the common stock has any value.

Fitch, vice-pres.; A. J. Hozeltine, treas.; Dix W. Swith, secy. Office: Cauton, Ohio, and 27 William St., N. Y. C. Agents: Hurd and Hearther, 510 Drexel Bldg., Phila. Remarks: Successor of the Cauton Mining Company. Formerly worked as a gold mine, but carried copper ores in lower workings. Formerly owned by Jas. A. Saxton, father-in-law of President McKinley, on strength of which company got its name. Company was promoted by Hurd & Hearther, 510 Drexel Bldg., Phila., senior partner of which firm was noted for promoting dubious mining propositions. Sands of company were sold at Sheriff's sale. December 31, 1904, and bid in by sundry stockholders who hoped to reorganize. Property regarded as of promise if in competent honest hands. In 1908 company was reported to be dead. Succeeded, about 1906 by McKinley Consolidated Mines Company, which also died, and was succeeded by the Willard Ely Copper Company which latter company had an office at 32 Liberty Street, New York City. Letters were returned unclaimed from mine office. Idle in 1908, and by reason of its bad antecedents, was not regarded favorable. In view of the above, and because the stock has been quoted as of no value in the past, we believe it to be valueless at the present time.

Organized October 6, 1919, in Delaware and acquired the property and business, assets, etc., of the Mercer Automobile Company which was established in Trenton, New Jersey, in June, 1909, for the purpose of manufacturing the "Mercer" automobile. The capital stock authorized and outstanding consisted of 700,000 shares of common, no par value, which was originally offered in October, 1919, at $40 a share. The debt consisted of $450,000 first sinking fund 8's dated June 1, 1921, due June 1, 1941, United States Mortgage & Trust Company of New York, trustee, and $1,495,475 four-year 7 per cent. sinking fund collateral notes dated August 1, 1921, due August 1, 1925, New York Trust Company, trustee. Interest on the first 8's dated June 1, 1921, was paid in full to December 1, 1922, and interest on the four-year 7 per cent. notes was defaulted February 1, 1923. Plan for readjustment of debt and capitalization dated March 15, 1923, under which stockholders were asked to subscribe for 100,000 shares Class "A" stock at par $4 a share, was declared abandoned May 18, 1923, because insufficient subscription had been received. Merchants Gold Mining Company. Incorporated about 1901 or previous thereto with a capital stock of $5,000,000, par $1. Mines located in South America. Company said to have owned about nine square miles of territory on the Amaceri River, department of Antioquia, Republic of Colombia. It was supposed to be a placer proposition which, according to the statements by the company, were to run from $2 to $2.50 per cubic yard. According to last information, reported in 1903, the officers were as follows: John Francis O'Brien, Baltimore, Md., president; Elisha F. Caldwell, attorney at law, N. Y. City, secretary and treasurer; F. W. Child, public accountant, 70 Wall Street, N. Y. City, auditor; Chas. Eaglefield, Bayonne, N. J. and Reginald Miner, member of the Oil Exchange, Philadelphia, Pa., directors. The United Securities Company with an office at 66 Broadway, New York, at that time were the fiscal agents of the company. However, it has been reported they went out of existence about 1903 and it is believed that the Merchants Gold Mining Company came to the same end as it was not operating in 1903 and no value was found for its stock at that time.

Merchants Improvement Association. First mortgage 7 per cent. due 1931/40. This is the theatre which was destroyed by bomb-throwing criminals, three of whom are now serving time in the penitentiary for their crime, and the fourth one is out on bail pending a Supreme Court decision. This explosion occurred prior to date of death. The Bondholders Protective Committee have worked long and faithfully in an effort to bring about some reorganization and readjustment which would ultimately save the first mortgage bondholders from loss, or, at least, bring them only a partial loss. There ultimately may be a partial recovery in favor of the first mortgage bondholders, but it is so problematical that for inheritance tax purposes the bonds should be classified as without value. We therefore submit these bonds to be valueless.

The properties were reported to consist of leases on about 10,000 acres in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana and Wyoming. It was promoted by the Independent Oil Exchange of 112 West 9th Street, Kansas City, Mo., who in 1920 offered the stock at 50 cents a share. The stock was promoted through the distribution through the mail of a great quantity of highly colorful circulars stating in part "do not wait until the last minute . . . or you may be disappointed. Get your order in to us by return mail," etc., etc. There is no market for the stock now, the last quotation being in June, 1922, at which time 500 shares were offered for sale at 6 cents a share with no bids. We do not attach any value to this stock.

Merrill Corporation. Organized under the laws of Delaware and in 1913 had an office at 440 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Ill., and the following officers: N. C. Merrill, president; A. S. Hazen, secretary. In 1915 corporation reported an office at 2761 Amsterdam Avenue, New York, N. Y. in charge of George Schneider (5 Beekman Street) and Emerson C. Merrill (2761 Amsterdam Avenue). The Merrill Corporation was engaged in constructing and renting apartment buildings which were built and partly furnished with patented furnishings in such a way that a bedroom could be changed into a library or a living room into a dining room, etc., in a moment. It is reported that apartments were built in a number of cities, local subsidiary companies being formed in each city. In 1914 it was said that the corporation had been putting all its earnings into the business for some time and paying dividends with stock of new subsidiaries. The balance sheet as of January 1, 1914, reported to show assets of $285,911; of which $190,300 was in mortgage bonds and stocks of subsidiary companies. Patent and development costs were carried at $26,555; the principal liabilities being subscription contracts of $102,032; capital stock $50,000; and capital stock subsidiaries $93,460; surplus $16,467. The promotion apparently was to use apartment houses as the basis of an endless chain of investment. There were issued 10 year 6 per cent. cumulative bonds and the stocks of the building companies were placed in a pool and the purchasers of the bonds were to receive an income from the dividends paid into the pool from the stock of the various companies. The investors were told that they were assured of four profits, the promoter's profit, the builder's profit, the banker's profit and the landowner's profit and the question was naturally raised as to "whence come the profits to the man who originates the scheme and is backing it?"

Metropolitan Credit Corporation. Incorporated under the laws of Delaware in November, 1918, to do a general financing business, handling time-paper, open accounts, trade acceptances, etc., for manufacturers of automobiles, washing machines and vacuum cleaners, also to underwrite issues of other corporations. An authorized capitalization of 10,000 shares preferred, par $100 and 10,000 shares common as par value. Stock was offered in January, 1919, by LeRoy Sargent & Company, as fiscal agent, LeRoy Sargent being the founder of the "Sargent System" otherwise known as the "Intensive System" of selling securities. He was also a director of the company. It was said Sargent asked persons of small means to subscribe for small amounts of stock on an installment basis, $25 per share cash paid with subscription, the balance of $10 per share paid monthly for 10 months. More than 5,000 investors are said to have put money in this corporation. It was reported that in an agreement with the directors Sargent guaranteed the corporation $106.25 per share on all preferred stock sold and offered the stock at $125 per share, with an equal bonus of common stock. It was said that Sargent pocketed $18.75 on every share of preferred stock sold. Company as of December 31, 1920, had a $670,000 mortgage. Notes payable. In October, 1921, name was changed to the Metropolitan Finance Corporation, whose business we understand was that of general financing and banking. Capital stock being, authorized 100,000 shares of common, no par, and $10,000,000 preferred, par $100. As of December 31, 1922, there were outstanding 50,948 shares common and $2,164,600 preferred. In addition 1,646 shares common and 2,607 shares preferred stock had been subscribed as of December 31, 1922. The company had an outstanding mortgage of $13,500 as of December 31, 1922. The subsidiaries of the company were the Marlin Fire Arms Corporation of New Haven, Connecticut; the New Fiction Publishing Company, publishers of Snappy Stories, Popular Radio and other periodicals; The Price Food Products Company and the Security Credit Corporation, the last named was in process of liquidation in July, 1923. Dividends were paid regularly on preferred stock to October 20, 1922, made quarterly J. A. J. October 20, none since. No dividends paid on common. A bill of complaint was filed in May, 1923, in the United States District Court at New York, in receivership proceedings against the corporation and its subsidiary, the Marlin Fire Arms Corporation, formerly the Marlin Repeating Arms Company; charged mismanagement and fraud in connection with the purchase and reorganization by corporation of the New Fiction Publishing Corporation and the Price Cereal Products Company. It was said that, with the stockholders' money, the Metropolitan Finance Corporation, at Sargent's instigation, bought for $250,000 the assets of the defunct and insolvent Price Cereal Products Company. It was alleged that Sargent, with sales offices in the Middle West, was promoting the sale of that concern's stock in 1914. It was also alleged that at a cost of $60,000 Sargent sent an agent, H. E. Marten, to the plant of the Price Cereal Products Company, to make a show of operation before concern was sold. It was also charged that Sargent benefited from the purchase of the New Fiction Publishing Company to the extent of $47,000. Other charges of mismanagement and fraud were made against him. Louis Strouse and Eugene Bibb of New York were appointed receivers in equity for Marlin Arms Corporation, New Haven, Connecticut, by United States District Court about July 18, 1923. In February, 1923, it was reported that Harvey Fiske and Sons, New York, acquired control of the Metropolitan Finance Corporation through ownership of more than half of its common stock. Mr. Sargent subsequently resigned from the directorate of the Metropolitan Finance Corporation and L. L. Homer, president of Harvey Fiske and Sons, became president. An effort was made to acquire order out of chaos, but evidently without avail, as Frank A. Lord and Samuel Falk were appointed equity receivers by Judge Goddard of the United States District Court of New York, July 27, 1923, under $50,000 bond in an equity action brought by five stockholders. Corporation reported bankrupt in 1924. We find auction sales of the Metropolitan Finance Corporation on May 17, 1924, of 2 shares of common at $1.00 each and 4 of preferred at $5.00 each share. Units of one preferred and one common were quoted by A. C. Wagy & Company, Los Angeles on May 5, 1927, at $4.00 bid and $5.00 offered. The Delaware charter of the Metropolitan Finance Corporation was proclaimed repealed for non-payment of two years' taxes on January 26, 1926.

Metropolitan Securities Company. Incorporated New York, February 14, 1902, under the Business Corporation Law. Capital stock, authorized and outstanding, $30,000,000; par $100; paid in, $75. Officers H. H. Vreeland, president; Alfred Skitt, vice-president; E. W. Sayre, secretary-treasurer. Directors: F. S. Cannon, New York; W. L. Pepperman, New York; Henry Sandeeson, New York; H. H. Vreeland, New York; N. P. Byan, Bound Brook, N. J.; Alfred Skitt, Yonkers, N. Y. Office, 621 Broadway, N. Y. C. On January 26, 1906, under an agreement entered into with August Belmont & Company, the Interborough Metropolitan Company acquired a large majority of the capital stock of the Metropolitan Securities. Shareholders of the Metropolitan Securities Company ($74 paid in) were given common stock for each share of old stock held. The Interborough Metropolitan Company in 1915 was consolidated with the Interborough Consolidated Corporation, which corporation went into bankruptcy March 21, 1919. The preferred and common stock of the Interborough Consolidated Corporation was taken off the list of the New York Stock Exchange on April 10, 1923. The charter of the Metropolitan Securities Company was revoked in 1925. In view of the above and since there have been no sales or quotations for many years we believe the stock without value at the present time.

Metropolitan Telegraph Company. Incorporated under the laws of Delaware. Was proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1916, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

Metropolitan Telephone & Telegraph Company. Incorporated under the laws of Delaware on July 9, 1912, and proposed to build a projected line of telegraph between Chicago and New York—and also caused two other companies to be formed, one under the laws of New York state on August 29, 1912, with a capital stock of $10,000 and another under New Jersey laws on May 23, 1923, with a capital stock of $10,000. The Delaware corporation had a capital stock of $3,000,000 and an authorized issue of bonds to the same amount. Stock of this company was owned by the Telepost Company, a promotion of the Sterling Debenture Corporation. (See Vol. I. of M. S. Manual for Sterling Debenture.) In May, 1913, as a result of a suit brought by the New York Telephone Company, on the grounds that the name of the company was that of the original New York Telephone Company in New York which was taken over by that company in 1896, bonds of which were then valuable and outstanding, the Manhattan Telephone & Telegraph Company was restrained from using its name. The New York Telephone Company also contended that the public was being deceived into buying bonds of this new Manhattan Telephone & Telegraph Company, which were of very uncertain and problematical value, believing them to be the bonds of the company that was taken over by the New York Telephone Company, which were selling above par and still outstanding at that time. The company was enjoined from using the Metropolitan Telephone & Telegraph Company as a trade name for the New York, Delaware and New Jersey companies in 1913. As far as we know the Telepost Company never started to construct any telegraph lines from New York to Chicago under the name of the Metropolitan Telephone & Telegraph. Companies were merely organized for the purpose of issuing securities as subsidiaries and auxiliaries of a company proposing to build a projected line of telegraph between those two cities. In the end we find Colonel Sellers, who headed these telephone and telegraph companies, making a desperate appeal to stockholders for subscriptions to an issue of $250,000 bonds of the Cosmopolitan Telephone & Telegraph Company, which was supposed to be constructing the lines of the Telepost Company. They were told that, unless they came to the rescue, their stock would be jeopardized, which is very much in the way of a confession. The charter of the New Jersey company was declared null and void by proclamation January 15, 1917. The face of the bonds of the Metropolitan Telephone & Telegraph Company, subsidiary of the Telepost Company, were said to be identical to the face of the bonds of the Metropolitan Telephone & Telegraph Company which was later the N. Y. Telephone Company, save that one had "Incorporated in Delaware" across the bond, whereas the other had "Incorporated in New York" on it. There has been a great deal of confusion regarding these bonds, and it is safe to say that any of these bonds held now are worthless. The original New York Telephone Company has no bonds outstanding, these having been called and all redeemed in 1911.

Mexican Coal & Coke Company. Incorporated under the laws of New Jersey on June 29, 1899, to develop coal mines in the state of Coahuila, Mexico. Capital stock authorized $5,000,000, outstanding $5,000,000, par $10[illegible] Dividends at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum were paid June and December 1st in 1904 and 1905. No dividends have been paid since. Bonded debt $3,000,000 authorized. $2,416,000 outstanding first gold 5 per cent. bonds; dated July 1, 1901, due July 1. 1926. Interest March and September 1st at Spencer Trask & Co., Guaranty Trust Company, New York. Sinking fund 5 cents (U. S. currency) per ton of coal mined, sold and delivered, and 7 cents per ton of coke sold and delivered $2,926,000 of bonds have been issued, of which $115,000 have been cancelled through sinking fund and $395,000 are held in the treasury. Subject to call at 110 on three months' notice. Owing to the internal troubles in Mexico, interest due March 1, 1911, on the first mortgage bonds and subsequent coupons are in default. Sinking fund charges have also been in default for the same period. The property is in the hands of a bondholders' committee consisting of Robert Mailory, R. Walter Leigh, R. Bayard Cutting and Isaac Jackson. $200,000 outstanding, Retort Oven Company, first mortgage 5's dated November 1, 1909 due November 1, 1921. Interest M. & N. 1. This company was organized in December, 1909, in the interest of the Mexican Coal & Coke Co., to build a plant of fifty (50) retort ovens. Plant is operated under lease by the Mexican Coal & Coke Company. Properties are located at Las Esperanzas and Conquiste and consist of 22,000 acres of coal land, owned in fee simple and mining rights in 50,000 acres located in the state of Coahuila, Mexico. Company operates the Coahuila Coal Company under lease, and also owns the Coahuila Coal Railway, from Barreteran to Las Esperanzas 6.2 miles and to Conquista a distance of 8.7 miles—a total of 14.9 miles. Officers: Acosta Nichols, president; George Foster Peabody, vice-president; Charles J. Peabody, treasurer; W. G. Winne, Jr., secretary. Directors: George Foster Peabody, R. W. Leigh, Acosta Nichols, C. J. Peabody, Robert Mallory, W. C. Winne, Jr. Address, 11 Broadway, New York City. Remarks: For the year ending December 31, 1910, the company's operations showed a deficit of $95,000. Coupons due March 1, 1911, and all subsequent coupons are in default, the company's financial difficulties being attributed to the revolutionary disturbances which have prevailed in Mexico to a greater or less extent for some years. We are advised that the railroad to the mines was cut by the rebels in February, 1913, thus severing connection with the south and that since this date there have been no shipments. Operations on a reduced basis were continued, however, in the hope that conditions would change, until August of this year when it was decided to close down the mine altogether. On June 6, 1925, certificates of deposit representing five $1,000 bonds sold at auction for $22 the lot. The only other market is a bid of 3 per cent. made March 10, 1928, by Fred H. Hatch & Company of New York City. At the office of Spencer Trask & Company, New York City, we are advised that the situation in regard to this company has remained unchanged for some years and is still in the hands of the bondholders' committee.

Mexican Consolidated Investment Company. Incorporated under the laws of the state of Arizona, and we understand was formed to acquire certain investments and securities, the value of which depended on the completion of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company. The stock of the investment company had a par value of $100. The Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company was incorporated in 1900; property was sold at foreclosure July 6, 1914, and subsequently reorganized into the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient Railroad Company. In 1925 company was again reorganized into the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company. The railway company as far as its construction is concerned is still incomplete and since we do not locate any further information of the investment company and since its success depended on the completion of the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient Railway Company, we do not believe it can be of any value at the present time.

Mexican Consolidated Mines Co. Incorporated under the laws of Arizona on May 31, 1910, and since that date has failed to make annual reports or pay fees required by law. A preliminary decree was entered on April 22, 1924, suspending all its corporate rights and franchises.

Mexican National Packing Company, Ltd. On October 17, 1902, the United States Packing Company was organized under the laws of New Jersey with an authorized capital stock of $1,000,000, par $100, subsequently increased to $4,000,000. On October 30, 1906, certificate was filed with the State of New Jersey changing the name of the United States Packing Company to the Mexican National Packing Company and increasing the authorized capital stock from $4,000,000 to $6,000,000. These two companies were organized for the purpose of carrying on a meat refrigerating and export trade, and acquired concessions granted by the Mexican Government and the governments of the States of Michoacan, Vera Cruz and Nuevo Leon. In February, 1910, a receiver was appointed and a plan of reorganization submitted dated June 30, 1910, under which the Mexican National Packing Company, Limited, was organized under the laws of Maine on January 22, 1911. The New Jersey charter of the Mexican National Packing Company was declared null and void by proclamation on March 10, 1913. The Mexican National Packing Company, Limited, owns certain concessions granted by the Mexican Government for the development of the live stock and meat industries of the country. In April, 1914, it was announced that the Mexican Government had acquired control of the company through the purchase of 51 per cent. of the common stock. Capital stock authorized and issued consists of $3,750,000 common and $9,000,000 preferred, par $100 each. No dividends have been paid on either the common or preferred stock. The bonded debt consists of the following: $3,000,000 outstanding first and special mortgage 6 per cent. gold bonds dated January 27, 1911, due January 27, 1931. Secured by a first mortgage on the immovable property, plant and concessions with the Central Trust Company (now Central Union Trust Company) of New York, as trustee. Authorized $5,000,000. Since 1914 the principal and interest on these bonds has been guaranteed by the Mexican Government. $1,500,000 authorized and outstanding second mortgage 6 per cent. bonds dated January 27, 1911, Farmers Loan & Trust Company of New York, trustee. Principal and interest guaranteed since 1914 by the Mexican Government. The head office of the company is at Mexico City, Mexico, and the London office at 10, Thrognorton Avenue, E. C. 2. Interest on the Mexican National Packing Company, Limited, first and special mortgage 6s dated 1911 has been in default since January 1, 1914, and no interest has been paid on the second mortgage 6s of 1911. The Mexican Debt Agreement was signed June 16, 1922, by the Mexican Government and the International Committee of Bankers of Mexico, 44 Wall St., New York City, and modified under date of October 23, 1925. It is the intention of the International Committee of Bankers to arrange for the adjustment of the Mexican Government external debt, the greater part, if not all, of which is in default as to principal or interest or both. Both the Mexican National Packing Company, Limited, first and special mortgage 6s of 1911 and the second mortgage 6s of 1911 have always since 1914 been considered as guaranteed as to principal and interest by the Mexican Government and as such a part of the valid external debt of that government but we are informed by the International Committee of Bankers of 44 Wall Street, New York City, that the Mexican Government does not now recognize this indebtedness. No provision has been made for the Mexican National Packing Company, Limited, bonds between the International Committee of Bankers of Mexico and the Mexican Government and the Central Union Trust Company of New York, trustee for the first and special mortgage, has taken no action in the interests of bondholders. In November, 1922, holders of the Mexican National Packing Company, Limited, first and special mortgage bonds were invited to lodge their bonds with the Council of Foreign Bondholders with a view to their interests being safeguarded. The Westminster Bank, Ltd., of London, England, is the banking representative of the Mexican National Packing Company, Ltd., and it would undoubtedly be well for all holders of the first and special mortgage and second mortgage bonds to communicate with these London bankers, make known their holdings, with the idea in view of organizing a bondholders committee to represent them before the International Committee of Bankers of Mexico and the Mexican Government. No definite or even remote action has been taken in this country to formulate any plan in the interests of bondholders and therefore it is suggested that all bondholders take some action immediately and it would appear that the best course to pursue would be to communicate with the Westminster Bank, Ltd., of London, England.

Mexican National Railway. Organized in June, 1873, as successor by change of name to the Empire Contract Co. Name changed to the Rio Grande Extension Co. on October 31, 1879.

One report filed in 1912 with the Secretary of State. None thereafter. Officers were: T. M. Spellacy, president; W. M. Wallace, secretary; no addresses given. There are no records of transactions in this stock as far as our records show and we believe it has no value at the present time.

Mexican Producing & Refining Company. Par $1. Company was organized under the laws of Delaware in 1917 with an authorized capital stock of $15,000,000, issued $10,000,000, all common, par $1, with properties described as leases in Tepetate District, State of Vera Cruz, Mexico, and at Casper, Wyoming. The officers in 1921 were as follows: T. Cappelen, president; B. De Mossin, first vice-president; William Sturgis, second vice-president; Tho. H. Eaton, secretary; Geo. Hanson, treasurer. The office of the company at that time was at 136 Liberty Street, New York City. We find that the Delaware charter was repealed during 1925 in which time it was claimed that taxes were unpaid for two years. No trace of the company can be found for some years and as there are no public quotations or sales reported of the stock it is our belief that it is one of the many oil companies that have ceased to exist. In our opinion the stock is valueless at the present time.

Mexican Union Railroad. Owned 10.61 miles of road extending from Rincon de Ramos to Cobre, Mexico. Operated under lease by the National Railways of Mexico in connection with the Mines Lines of Mexico, controlled by the American Smelting & Refining Co.

Mexico-American Petroleum Company. The Ozark Oil & Gas Company, organized under the laws of Delaware, went out of existence on January 23, 1924, on which date the charter was forfeited for non-payment of taxes. The Mexico-American Petroleum Company was organized in 1920 and in June, 1921, offered its stock on a share for share basis for that of the Ozark Oil & Gas Company stock. The Mexico-American Petroleum Company in 1921 reported an office in the Oil Exchange Building, Fort Worth, Texas, and the following officers: Allan B. Reynolds, president; D. B. Read, secretary. The capital stock authorized was $5,000,000, issued $600,000, par $1, all common. Properties described as 60,000 acres in Texas and New Mexico. No further trace can be found of the company and there is no market for the stock.

Mexico Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company. Value of stock, par $10. Incorporated in Maine in 1904. Place of business at date of incorporation, Boston, Massachusetts. We have been informed by bankers who were at one time interested in this company that unsettled conditions in Mexico forced the company to abandon its property in that company. The latest sale of this stock of which we have rcecord was at public auction in Boston, October 7, 1922, when 100 shares sold at $5 the lot. The First National Bank of Boston, Massachusetts, under date of December 8, writes the following: "In reply to your letter of December 6, please be advised that the Mexico Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company went into the hands of receivers over twelve years ago and all of the assets of the company were sold at a receiver's sale, the proceeds being insufficint to pay the creditors in full. You will therefore appreciate that the stock is without value."

Midco Petroleum Company. The company defaulted in payment of interest due November 1, 1921, and The Continental National Bank was designated depositary under the terms of a bondholders' protective agreement dated October 24, 1921. In August, 1924, the mortgage was foreclosed, the property being bid in by the bondholders' protective committee. In the reorganization a new company was formed called the Midco Oil Corporation and the holders of the certificates of deposit were entitled to receive voting trust certificates representing capital stock of the new corporation upon surrender of the certificate of deposit. If you hold a certificate of deposit, it can be exchanged for the new stock at the office of the Continental National Bank, Chicago, Ill. The holders of the undeposited bonds were entitled to receive about $20 for each $100 bond. This amount can be collected by surrendering the bonds and all unpaid coupons to Mr. W. E. Uttervach, special master, Federal Court, Durant, Oklahoma.

Mid-Continent Consolidated Oil & Utilities Corporation. Incorporated under the laws of New York state about 1916 and was reported to own the following companies in their entirety: Peoples Service Company, Iowa Pipe Line Company, Citizens Service Company, Vian Service Company, Grand River Gas Company, Albemarle Producing Company, Grand River Producing Company, Stegler Producing Company, Lane Oil Producing Company, and 80 per cent. of the Salislan Producing Company. Capital stock consisted of 150,000 shares, no par value, of which Keene, Zayas & Potts offered a limited amount in March, 1917, at $12. The company had no funded debt. Company was a promotion of E. A. Ferron & Company, 226 S. La Salle Street, Chicago. For a while it flourished on the New York Curb, selling up to $13 a share. After 1918, however, the stock did not have any market to speak of and subsequently no sales or quotations were to be found. An office was maintained at 37 Wall Street, New York City, until about 1924, after which it was evidently abandoned, as we have no further record of an existing office in New York. The officers were last reported as follows: Dick R. Lane, president; G. W. Fry, vice-president and general manager; A. S. Nelson, treasurer, with H. C. Kahl, H. C. Blackwell, Louis W. Duncan and Horace S. Gould as directors. Transfer agents: Metropolitan Trust Company, N. Y. C.; Central Trust Company of Illinois, Chicago. Registrars: Security Transfer & Registrar Company, N. Y. C.; Ft. Dearborn Trust & Savings Bank, Chicago. Depositary: First National Bank of Muskogee, Okla. Our office talked with Mr. Horace S. Gould, and he seems to be unacquainted with the company's affairs. He believes it has been discontinued as he finds no record of it whatsoever.

Midvale Steel & Ordnance Company. Organized under the laws of Delaware on October 5, 1915, and acquired control of the Midvale Steel Co., Remington Arms Company, etc. Capital stock authorized $150,000, par $50, upon which an initial dividend of $1.50 was paid February 1, 1917, which rate was maintained to February 1, 1919, inclusive; May 1, 1919, $1 which rate was maintained quarterly until February 1, 1921, when 50 cents was paid, none thereafter. Until date of November 24, 1922, agreements were entered with the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, whereby the latter company acquired all the properties of the Midvale Steel & Ordnance Company. Transfer of the properties was made March 30, 1923. Under the terms of this purchase practically all the liabilities and obligations of the Midvale Steel & Ordnance Company were assumed by the Bethlehem Steel Corporation or its subsidiaries. Under the terms of the purchase of 1922, one share of Midvale Steel & Ordnance Company stock, par $50 was exchangeable for $47.50 of Bethlehem Steel Corporation common, par $100 1/10th of a share of New Nicetown Company stock, no par value. This exchange can still be made by presentation of Midvale Steel & Ordnance Company stock at the office of the Guaranty Trust Company, 140 Broadway, New York City.

Midwest and Gulf Oil Corporation. Incorporated in December, 1919, in Delaware. An operating company producing crude petroleum in the Mid-Continent fields of South America. Began business in December, 1919, acquiring the entire assets of the Mid-West Gulf Company, Inc. As of December, 1922, company's holdings were as follows: Producing properties in Oklahoma, Indiana, Louisiana and Kentucky; properties under development in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Kansas; undeveloped properties in Oklahoma, Kansas, Tennessee, Louisiana, Arkansas, Texas. Company controls the Midwest and Gulf Company of Texas whose holdings cover valuable acreage and production in the Iowa Park, Petrolia and other fields of Texas. Besides the properties upon which Midwest and Gulf Oil Corporation owns the oil and gas leases, it owns in fee 24,044 acres of farm and timber land in Oklahoma, Mississippi on which geologists regard the possibilities of finding oil and gas in commercial quantities favorable. Capital stock: authorized, $5,000,000 common and $5,000,000 8 per cent. cumulative convertible preferred; outstanding $2,327,490 common and $2,194,350; par $10. Authorized capital stock was increased in 1922 from $3,000,000 common and $2,000,000 8 per cent. cumulative preferred to present amounts. Preferred stock has preference as to assets as well as dividends. Convertible into common share for share, with cash adjustment of difference in market value. Preferred dividend payable quarterly. We understand that the Exchange National Bank of Tulsa has a mortgage on some of their oil properties and has been trying to get accurate information in regard to the condition of the company for some time. The feeling is, we understand, that the company probably has assets sufficient to pay the debts to clients, but practically none to stockholders, which makes the stock practically worthless with no market value. In February, 1925, we find that 140 shares of preferred sold at auction in New York City for $10 the lot. Coleman and Reitze as of June 7, 1907 report a bid of 1,000 shares of preferred at 6 and no offers. The common has been offered at .15 in 1925 and 1927, with no bids. Brokers have advised us that in their estimation, both classes of stock are worthless, basing this opinion on the fact that they own some of the stock and have been unable to obtain a bid during the last two years. The officers last reported were: E. S. Hammond, president, Tulsa, Oklahoma; J. M. Clark, vice-president, Elizabeth, New Jersey; H. D. Moreland, vice-president, Chicago, Illinois; Wm. P. Weickel, secretary and assistant treasurer, Tulsa, Oklahoma; T. A. Burrows, treasurer; H. J. Butley, assistant secretary, Tulsa, Oklahoma. General and operating offices. Mayo Building, Tulsa, Oklahoma; New York office, 23 West 43rd Street. The New York office was evidently abandoned in 1926 as it was reported at that time that the Company had been at the address given but definite information as to their present location was unobtainable. John M. Clark, formerly a director and now located at 210 Murray Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey, states that the last he heard the company had lost its charter for non-payment of taxes and he considers the stock of no value. Delaware charter of this company became void March 17, 1926 and proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1927, for non-payment of taxes.

Mildred Consolidated Mining Company. This company was organized on November 1, 1923, with an authorized capital of $2,500,000 to take over the Mildred Gold Mining Company and two or three other companies like the Mildred, which had been struggling along for several years to make a paying proposition out of low grade property. We understand that the new company has outstanding about $1,000,000 worth of stock, and the company is charging $1 a share for the exchange. It is claimed to be a transfer fee. The property of this company is in Yavapai County, Arizona; gold, Milford & Uxbridge State Railway. Incorporated in Massachusetts. Walter L. Adams, receiver of the above named company, sold the same on January 13, 1929, and all cash was turned over to the Old Colony Trust Company and the American Trust Company of Boston, Massachusetts, who have distributed the same to the bondholders. The Old Colony Trust Company of 17 Court Street, Boston, have as trustee, distributed to the holders of the Milford & Uxbridge State Railway 5 per cent. mortgage gold bonds and amount equivalent to $242.87 for each $1,000 par value of these bonds.

Military Naval Corporation. Incorporated on November 24, 1909, in New Jersey to deal in military and naval goods. Capital stock consisted of $2,000, par $10 each. No dividends were paid. Funded debt consisted of $187,000, 10 year 5 per cent. bonds dated January 1, 1910, and due January 1, 1920. In 1912 company claimed assets of about $275,000 represented by patents and copyrights consisting of military publications. These assets were in excess of $189,000 of liabilities but hardly liquid. These bonds were secured by these publications and were to be issued from time to time in payment of military and naval patents and copyrights. Thomas H. S. Boden of Newark, New Jersey, was the trustee for these bonds but we have not been able to locate him at the present time. Officers and directors were Edward S. Farrow, president and treasurer; John W. Reardon, secretary and Augustus Lee. The office was last reported at 50 Church Street, New York City, in 1915, after which no further trace of the company can be found. We believe that these bonds have no value at this time.

Capital stock: Authorized $500,000, par value $100. Purpose of Company: To conduct business of melting, forging and founding iron and other ores. Remarks: We have communicated with the Illinois Steel Company and they inform us that it was not the stock of the Milwaukee Iron Company that was taken over by the North Chicago Rolling Mill Company, but the assets, by purchase at sale by assignee in bankruptcy and also by the sheriff on foreclosure of the mortgage. Following is a copy of one item in the abstract: "In the matter of the bankruptcy of the Milwaukee Iron Company, United States District Court Eastern Dist. of Wisconsin, Docket B-65 No. 362. Oct. 14, 1876, petition filed asking that said company be declared a bankrupt; Oct. 21, 1876, adjudication of bankruptcy rendered; Dec. 6, 1876, acceptance and official bond filed; June 15, 1877, petition filed for sale of premises at No. 171 and other property; Nov. 9, 1877, order of sale rendered; Feb. 17, 1878, assignees report of sale filed, and confirmed Feb. 16, 1878. Deed at No. 171." We have been advised by the U. S. District Court, Eastern Division of Wisconsin, that there were no funds remaining from the bankruptcy sale of the Milwaukee Iron Company. We, therefore, believe the stock of this company to be without value at the present time.

Mine Mount Land Co. Company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey on February 18, 1916, with an authorized capital stock of $250,000, par $100 to do a "general real estate business". On March 26, 1917, authorized capital stock was increased to $375,000. At date of incorporation location of company was given as 15 Exchange Place, Jersey City, New Jersey, care of the Corporation Trust Co. The present address is Bernardsville, N. J. The Mine Mount Land Co. is not an operating company. It holds title to about 210 acres of land at Bernardsville, N. J., on which it constructed various improvements, the principal of which is a golf course, club house, tennis court, a lake and roads. This property was then leased to the Somerset Hills Country Club in consideration of the Club's paying taxes, insurance, interest on loans, etc. The present authorized capital stock is $450,000, par $100, of which $425,575 has been subscribed to and paid in in cash. The capital stock was subscribed for by members of the Somerset Hills Country Club as a community proposition. Originally the land cost the Mine Mount Land Co. about $58,000 and the balance of its paid in capital has been almost entirely expended in the improvements thereon. In actual figures this amounts to "Cost of Land $58,000", "Improvements $367,575". The large portion of these improvements went into the golf course, lake, roads and tennis courts, which do not materially increase the value of the land as an asset to the company. There is very little likelihood of a return to the stockholders, unless the club goes out of existence and the property sold. This possibility is exceedingly remote and, therefore, the stock has value only as a community club proposition. On December 29, 1923, there was sold at auction in New York City, 100 shares of this stock at $1 the lot and we, therefore, do not believe the stock has any market value and it has been carried at zero in Inheritance Tax proceedings.

Mines Le Motte Lead & Smelting Company. Property and operations not reported. Capital Stock, $3,000,000. Classed as a stock selling scheme.

Mines Securities Corporation. Organized November, 1901, in Maine with a Capital of $2,500,000., of which $2,062,515, was issued, shares having a par value of $5. Company managed, owned and developed mining properties. It controlled the Natalie-Accidental Consolidated M. & M. Company and the Ruby Basin Mining and Tunnel Co., both of Colorado, the properties including 64 claims, covered by U. S. Patents. Since the death of the moving spirit in the enterprise, T. J. Hurley, some time ago, the company seems to have remained in a condition of suspended animation; and those of the former directors who were located disclaimed definite knowledge of the enterprise, stated that they had withdrawn from it about the time of Mr. Hurley's decease. At all events, there is no market for the company's securities as there have been no sales or quotations of the stock for a number of years. In view of the above we believe the shares to be worthless.

Missouri Pacific Railroad Company, (old). Stock believed to have value. We refer you to our statistical department.

Missouri Pacific Railway Company. The property formerly belonged to the Missouri Pacific Railway Company was sold under foreclosure proceedings on February 23, 1917 and was thereafter acquired by the present Missouri Railroad Company. Since that time the stock had no value except the privilege, which we believe is still open, to deposit it with the Central Union Trust Co., 60 Broadway, New York, depository under the Plan of Agreement of Reorganization of the Missouri Pacific Railway Co., and St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Railway Co. The old stock we believe was assessed $50 per share, which assessment was payable May 22, 1917, after which date interest at the rate of 6 per cent. must be added to the amount of the assessment. We believe that each share of old stock on which the assessment with interest has been paid the depositor would be entitled to the following principal amount of securities of the present Missouri Pacific Railroad Co.: $50 general mortgage 4 per cent. bonds with accrued interest from June 1, 1917, $100 common stock. We therefore suggest that you get in communication with the Central Union Trust Company at 60 Broadway, where you will be able to obtain definite information relative to the stock.

Missouri River & Northwestern Railway Company. The Missouri River & Northwestern Railway Company succeeded by purchase to all the rights of way, franchises, extensions and improvements of the Dakota, Wyoming & Missouri River R. R. and the Dakota-Pacific R. R. It extended over a distance of 35 miles of main line from Rapid City, S. D. on the Chicago & Northwestern R. R. to Mystic, S. D. on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy. The road ran through what is known as the Central Black Hills. Had a capitalization of $500,000 common and $500,000 4 per cent. cumulative preferred stock and an authorized issue of $1,000,000 first mortgage 5 per cent. gold coupon bonds, dated June 1, 1904 and due June 1, 1944, of which $700,000 were issued, the balance being reserved for extensions. Subsequently a receiver was appointed for the road and in December, 1907, under a Bondholders' Agreement, deposit of the bonds was requested with the Equitable Trust Co. Road was sold and as not enough money was realized from sale to pay receivers' certificates, there was nothing left for the bondholders. Bonds are considered worthless by the Equitable Trust Co.

Mitchell Mining Company. Participation Loan Certificate. This loan certificate was issued by the Standard Trust Company of New York on December 7, 1907. The Standard Trust Company was merged with the Guaranty Trust Company in 1912 and the latter company advises us that the only record they have regarding this matter was that 650 shares of Mitchell Mining Company were to be deposited by the stockholders who were to lend 20 cents per share on their holdings. Such loan was to run for 60 days from date which was sometime in October, 1907. The record further shows that on December 20, 1907 notices were sent out to receipt holders to surrender same and receive in exchange loan certificates. The Guaranty Trust Company has no further information regarding this matter and they believe that all transactions were consummated by the Standard Trust Company before the merger in 1912. In view of the company's history, and the fact that there is no further trace of these loan certificates, we believe them to be valueless at the present time.

Moludite Co. In 1928 the financial statement of this company showed practically all their assets intangible, consisting of patented and unpatented processes of various things, most of which are lying dormant because all the available funds were spent by previous management which also left the company insolvent to the extent of about $25,000. Whether the company will ever be able to square up these obligations is a question. At the present time we understand there is absolutely no market for the stock and we understand that the company is planning a reorganization.

Molybdenum Products Corporation. Property and operations not reported. Shares $1 par. In January, 1919, 4,000 shares preferred, Series "A" sold at auction for $10 for the lot. Also 1,000 shares preferred for $6 for the lot.

Monarch Gold and Copper Mining Company. This company was incorporated sometime around 1900 or previous thereto, located at Big Bug, Yavapai County, Arizona. The company in its prospectus claimed that its property was in the Verde district, near Jerome, whereas the property as shown on its own map was much nearer the Val Verde smelter in Big Bug, than it was to Jerome. It was reported that the company's "Claim that the Venture Hill, Equator, Cliff, Brookshire, and other properties were producers," was false. On the basis of the company's capitalization and the price at which the stock was sold, the 10 claims would have given a valuation of $500,000 which was undoubtedly too large. The property was promoted by G. P. Morrill. The last known officers of the company were: John B. Hatherway, president; Geo. E. Warren, secretary; G. P. Morrill, treasurer; C. L. Barker, general manager, with office at 219-53 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts. In 1907 the company was reported as to have been idle several years, and subsequently in 1908 was reported dead and we attach no value to these shares.

As far as we can ascertain, the stock ceased trading on the exchange at this time. If there is any value to these shares, it will be only through a possible exchange of stock for the A. P. Radio Laboratories stock, or a participation in the apportionment of any equity distributed by the A. P. Laboratories at the close of litigation.

Moorhead Laboratories, Inc. This company ceased to do business under injunctive orders of the United States Court because of patent infringement in May, 1922. At that time its only property was a plant for the manufacture of radio tubes. The equipment of the plant was mostly old and obligations of the company were considerably more than the value of its properties. The stockholders were called together in the winter of 1923-1924, and all of the facts submitted to them. The stock being non-assessable, no money could be raised in that way and therefore a voluntary call was made upon the stockholders for contribution to a fund to release a chattel mortgage on the company's property. This was unsuccessful. Accordingly the property was sold out under order of the bank pledge in or about February, 1924, the amount realized being just enough to pay the chattel mortgage claims. Following this, the company's charter was allowed to lapse and the stock ended so far as we know. We understand that the property and equipment of this company were taken over by the A. P. Radio Laboratories in 1924.

Morgan Manufacturing Company, Inc. Incorporated under the laws of Delaware, September 1, 1916. This company moved from Newport, R. I. to Keene, N. H. about 1920 or thereabouts and proceeded to undergo a program of expansion. The moving spirit behind this enterprise is a man by the name of B. Morgan. Business: Company manufactures automaticle accessories. Property: Property consists of about 6½ acres. In addition to main factory company's property includes two buildings to take care of pump finishing and nickel plating. In January, 1924, it was reported that company passed both the October and January dividends on both the common and preferred stock. We understand that company was subsequently placed in receivership. Officers: O. E. Caine, Keene, N. H., president; Arthur L. Wright, Keene, N. H., treasurer; Philip H. Faulkner, Keene, N. H., secretary. Mr. O. E. Caine who acted as the chairman of a temporary organization resulting from the receivership advises us as follows: "The company had all been shot to pieces before I had any connection with it. There is no value to the stock. The receiver sold the property and paid only a percentage to the creditors. The company was never much more than a stock jobbing concern, and those responsible have left New Hampshire a long while ago.

Mount Pleasant & Seaview City Railway Company. Incorporated in an act of the South Carolina legislature, approved December 24, 1885, and an act repealing the charter was approved January 5, 1895. It is understood that some 35 years ago there was a railroad under construction from Mount Pleasant, South Carolina, to Sullivan's Island, S. C. (Sea View City, S. C.) but that part under construction was destroyed by a disastrous storm along the coast in 1893 and further construction was abandoned. There appears to have been no railroad by this name operating in South Carolina and it never has been in operation as far as the records of the South Carolina Railroad Commission are concerned. Inquiry to the office of the Secretary of State of South Carolina reveals that the latest papers filed in that office were dated 1892. It would therefore appear that the securities are without value.

Music Master Corporation. This company was incorporated in Delaware in 1922. In 1925 the company had an authorized capital stock of 500,000 shares outstanding 450,000 shares no par value. There were no bonds or preferred stock authorized. In April, 1926, Federal Judge Thompson at Philadelphia appointed Melville G. Baker and David S. Ludlum permanent receivers. On May 4, 1926, the corporation was entered in the U. S. Supreme Court in Philadelphia on a decree declaring bankruptcy. The affairs of the company were then placed under control of C. H. Stinson of Norristown, Penna., the referee in bankruptcy. The liabilities of the company were then estimated at $1,200,000 and the assets at $400,000. The latest quotations on this stock were made by Frank T. Stanton & Company of New York on September 8, 1928, when .05 cents was bid and .25 cents asked. 400 shares of interim receipts of no par value were sold at auction on November 9, 1927, at $1 the lot. The estimation of the liabilities so far exceeded the assets estimated that it is not probable that any funds remain for stockholders. We will, however, forward any further information we receive about the company. The only remaining assets as of November 24, 1928, is a piece of real estate which has been offered for sale on numerous occasions by the trustee. The trustee advises that he cannot receive a price over and above the encumbrances on the property and for this reason has been holding same until he can secure private bid. Do not think it will be possible to close this matter before spring of 1929.

Mutual Profit Realty Company. Incorporated in New York on December 31, 1908, with a capital stock of $100,000 by John W. Paris, Nicholas W. Harren and Ida Milliken under a charter which permitted the company to deal in real estate, receive deposits, buy foreign coin, bills of exchange, etc., and to conduct a general engineer and general promotive business. The bulk of the property owned by the company was in Queens, New York, and sold to the company by Mr. Paris and his associates. In a report of June 1, 1913, Real Estate holdings were valued at $975,750 of which $590,500 was in vacant real estate, $326,000 in improved real estate and buildings. The company owned only one parcel in Manhattan, a vacant lot, appraised at $50,000. In October, 1914, company was denied a renewal of its license to do business in Connecticut where it had sold $700,000 of bonds. We understand that there are only two grounds on which a license to do business in Connecticut may be refused. One is that the applicant is doing business illegally, and the other that it is insolvent. After an investigation by the Hartford Courant the following was reported in the Press of July 5, 1913: "What aroused the Courant's suspicion as to the intrinsic value of the profit sharing bonds this company sells was the item in its financial statement showing that it had cash on hand in 1911 of $5,533.39 against which it had discounted bills of $4,000 while in 1912 the cash on hand had dwindled to $615.34 while the bills discounted still remained at $4,000. In other words, as the Courant quite truthfully states, it appears rather ridiculous that a company with real estate valued at $664,000 could be doing business with $616 cash on hand with $4,000 of discounted bills outstanding." On March 4, 1914, it was reported that the State had asked for a receiver for the company and sought to revoke its charter, on the grounds that it was conducting a straight banking business and had not been authorized to do such a business by the Superintendent of Banks. The complaint stated that the chief business of the company was the issuing and selling of so called profit sharing bonds. Although the Commissioner of the State of Connecticut refused to give the real reason for refusing a renewal of the Company's license, and inasmuch as a license can be refused only on two grounds, it would seem that the company was doing business illegally as well as being insolvent. The officers were last reported as of 1923 to be the following: John W. Paris, president (now deceased); George Schaeffer, secretary-treasurer; F. W. Miver, C. M. Keck, directors, with an office located at 116 West 32nd Street, New York City.

National Glass Company. This company was incorporated under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania on July 5, 1899, to consolidate about twenty manufacturers of table glassware in Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Pennsylvania. The authorized capital stock consisted of $4,000,000, of which $1,312,150 7 per cent, non-cumulative preferred and $1,479,625 common were outstanding when last reported. Bonded debt consisted of $600,000 first mortgage 6 per cent. bonds, dated November 1, 1899, $200,000 due annually November 1, 1907 to 1909. Interest March and November first at Mellon National Bank, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. Secured on all plants of the company. Original issue amounted to $2,000,000. $1,900,000 general gold 6's dated November 1, 1901, due November 1, 1921, authorized $2,500,000. Interest March and November first at Mellon National Bank, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, Union Trust Company of Pittsburgh was the trustee under both the mortgages. The National Glass Company and its affiliated companies were placed in the hands of receivers in 1907. Company having defaulted in payment of principal of $200,000 first mortgage due November 1, 1907 and also payment of interest on entire $600,000, May 1, 1908. On June 17, 1908, Union Trust Company foreclosed and property was subsequently sold on November 10, 1908 for an aggregate sum of about $745,000. Properties in West Virginia sold at $30,000. In Ohio $200,000, Pennsylvania $250,000, Maryland $5,000, Indiana $55,000 and various patents of company sold at $5,000. Entire property at Rochester, Pennsylvania, including the Keystone factory and the Rochester Tumbler Works, was sold on March 30, 1909 to the Ellwood City Glass Company for $200,000. The vice-president of the Union Trust Company of Pittsburgh writes under date of July 23, 1928, as follows: "Replying to yours of the 20th beg to advise that the bonds in question have no value whatever. The properties covered by the mortgage of the National Glass Company were sold years ago under foreclosure proceedings and the company was dissolved through receivership proceedings."

National Glass Casket Company. Incorporated under the laws of Colorado and was advertised as defunct and inoperative on October 9, 1923, for failure to file annual reports or pay corporation license tax as by law required. There is no market for the stock as far as our records show. The articles of association of above company dated January 18, 1919, recites the trustees to be A. J. Chambers, L. Johns and T. B. Jones. The records in the office of the County Clerk do not disclose the value of the stock at the present time. We believe that same is worthless. During the years 1919-1920 there were joint stock associations, organized there by parties from all parts of the U. S. and practically all of these concerns "blew up long ago."

New England Oil Refining Company. Upon petition of the Farmers' Loan & Trust Company of New York the subject company was placed in receivership on October 10, 1928, as a result of excessive fixed charges from interest and sinking fund of secured debt which had been in default since 1926. On February 5, 1929, practically all property of value was sold through the First Mortgage Bondholders' Committee to Shell Eastern Petroleum Products Inc. now subsidiary of Shell Union Oil Corporation which had already purchased the retail distribution system through New England. On February 19, 1929, holders of First Mortgage 10-year 8 per cent. Sinking Fund Gold Bonds of this company were informed that distribution equal to 40½ per cent. of principal and interest on bonds due and unpaid to February 5, 1929, would be paid upon presentation to the First National Bank of Boston. Latest quotation on file for the Common Stock Voting Trust Certificates as of June 1, of 5c to 15c seems to be unchanged at the present date. Practically no assets of value appear to be remaining, there being $5,000,000 general mortgage bonds and $6,804,000 of 7 per cent. preferred stock ahead of the common stock.

Plant and property were located at New Haven, Conn., and comprised 5 acres of land and mill buildings with a wharf with 480 ft. frontage on an inlet from Long Island Sound. Annual capacity was given as 30,000 tons of bar iron and steel. Was connected by an electric freight road with the New York, New Haven & Hartford. Had authorized and outstanding $500,000 capital stock, shares $5 par. Listed on the Philadelphia Stock Exchange. Paid dividends at various rates from 1900 to 1908. General office was at New Haven, Conn. Had an office in Philadelphia. Notice was given on November 1, 1914, that the Company's plant was for sale and if not disposed of before the 16th of that month it would be offered at public sale.

New Haven Milling Co., New Haven, Michigan. Dissolution filed May 31, 1904.

New Hoffman Company. Incorporated in Delaware in Oct., 1916 with a capital stock of $2,000,000 8 per cent. non-cumulative preferred and $2,000,000 common, par value $1.00. Property consisted of 600 acres of leases in the Goose Creek Oil Field 40 miles southwest of Houston, Texas and 11 acres of leases in the Humble Field, 20 miles north of Houston. Officers were, Henry H. Hoffman, president, J. L. Donahue, 1st vice-president; M. E. Farrand, 2nd vice-president and B. B. Gilman, treasurer. The last record of any transactions in these shares occurred at auction on Sept. 8, 1922, when 200 shares of stock sold at $1 for the lot. In view of the above we believe the common and preferred shares are valueless at the present time.

New Hoffman Oil Company. No record of properties or operations. Capital stock $4,000,000. A stock selling scheme.

New Home Building Co., Detroit, Michigan. Dissolution filed July 24, 1922.

New Home Building Corporation, Detroit, Michigan. Dissolution filed May 4, 1928.

New Home Company-New Home Sewing Machine Company. A plan was declared operative in November, 1927, whereby the New Home Building Company recapitalized to the amount of $500,000. Later additional funds were necessary to carry on the installment and retail business of the New Home Sewing Machine Company, operating company, but could not be obtained and the company was faced with a receivership. Receivership seemed disastrous as company's assets consisted mostly of unfinished inventions so negotiations culminated in an agreement of October, 1926, with Messrs. Landstran and Johnson whereby the latter company took over the management of the New Home Sewing Machine Company. Messrs. Landstran and Johnson are not to receive any compensation for their services except after the payment in full of all existing indebtedness. Upon accomplishment of this, the contract provides that they are to receive all the common stock of the New Home Sewing Machine Company subject only to the payment to the company of from $150,000 to $300,000 of 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock, depending on the net quick position of the company at that time. The agreement was conditioned upon the Sewing Machine Company procuring from its principal creditors an agreement extending their indebtedness for a period of at least two years and providing for their subscribing to a fund of approximately $350,000 to supply the company with working capital. All the property of the New Home Company (holding company for the New Home Sewing Machine Company, operating company) which consisted of stock of the New Home Sewing Machine Company, was sold under above agreement. Under this arrangement you will note that the maximum amount to be received by the New Home Company is $300,000 in a first preferred stock. As there are outstanding $500,000 of first preferred stock, you will see that neither the second preferred nor the common stocks of the New Home Company have any value. With respect to the bonds of the New Home, there were issued under date of October 1, 1925, 20-year 7 per cent. Collateral Trust Gold Bonds of the New Home Company. No other bonds were ever issued. Under recapitalization in October, 1927, these bonds were turned in and voting trust certificates for second preferred stock were issued in their place. None of these bonds are outstanding now. Certificates of deposit, however, are outstanding. Any further information

New Jersey Adjustable Screen Company. Incorated New Jersey. Officers: W. F. Brower, president; J. B. R. Smith, vice-president; W. J. Woestendick, secretary. This company was placed into the hands of a receiver about one year ago, and was sold to a committee of stockholders. The stockholders committee, afterwards the management of the new company, was in constant communication with old shareholders during the reorganization. We are informed by the new company, the Newark Metal Screen Company, Inc., now located at 161-167 Ogden Street, Newark, New Jersey, that those stockholders who did not purchase stock in the new company when the opportunity was given them, then his old stock is now absolutely worthless. However, they advise that old stockholders should retain their stock in the case that the new company should again extend the privilege of purchasing stock in the new company.

New Jersey Contracting Company. Company was organized under the laws of New Jersey in 1880 to construct railroad with an authorized capital stock of $550,000, par $100 and located at Walton, N. J. The New Jersey charter became null and void on January 5, 1904 since which year the stock has been carried at zero in Inheritance Tax proceedings. We believe these shares to be valueless.

New Jersey Farms Co. Incorporated under the laws of New Jersey. Was proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1915, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

New Jersey Fidelity & Loan Company. We have been endeavoring to locate information pertaining to this Company through R. C. Slater & Company, who, we understand, were connected with the selling of stock in the New Jersey Fidelity and Loan Company. Our investigator called at their former office at 113 West 42nd Street and was informed that R. C. Slater & Company had moved and left no forwarding address or other trace of their present location. Mail addressed to them was also returned.

New Jersey Franklinite Company. Incorporated in New Jersey. The Sussex Zinc & Copper Mining & Manufacturing Company changed its name to the New Jersey Franklinite Company on January 26, 1853. We have been advised by the General Counsel of the New Jersey Zinc Company that during his twenty years connection with the company, he never heard of the securities of the New Jersey Franklinite Company having any value. However prior to the execution of the bonds in question and the mortgage which was executed to secure such bonds, certain of the mineral rights of the New Jersey Franklinite Company were made subject to a purchase money mortgage. This purchase money mortgage was foreclosed and the property sold by the sheriff in 1860. Previous to that time the New Jersey Zinc Company had some litigation with the Franklinite Company as a result of which the Court of Errors and Appeals of New Jersey ruled that certain mineral rights belonged to the Zinc Company and not to the Franklinite Company. This was all about 70 years ago. We do not believe there was anything left of the Franklinite Company after the litigation, and therefore believe the bonds worthless at the present time.

New Jersey Gold Mining & Milling Company. We find a New Jersey Gold Mining Company, incorporated under the laws of the State of Washington, with a capital of $2,000,000. Mr. William Lambert, president and J. K. Tilsey, secretary, with an office reported at 408 Traders' Building, Spokane, Washington. Under date of March 14, 1904, the company rendered a full report to the stockholders. Of the capitalization, 22,318 shares of treasury stock was left but the large stockholders donated 75,000 shares of their personal stock to the treasury making a total of 97,318 shares of stock which the company planned to sell to complete the work on property. From October 27, 1902 to March 14, 1904, the company had received $48,044.58 and borrowed $2,000 from trustees, all of which money, the secretary reported, was expended on the property. It was reported that the trustees planned to issue $10,000 6 per cent. bonds; and this with the sale of the 97,318 shares of treasury stock, were expected to put the company on a producing basis. Property was located between Big Creek and Gold Run, Coeur D'Alene mining district, Idaho. In 1904 it was reported that there were two men at work on the property. The shaft was 246 feet deep and during 1903 the company had run 600 feet of tunnel, shafts and driftings and had completed an 8,300 foot flume, which furnished the power for the mill, electric light plant and tramway, the latter being 1,650 feet long. The company also had a ten stamp mill rock crusher, two turbine water wheels, assay plant, concentrator, etc. The trustees planned to run a 1200 foot tunnel to tap the ledge at a depth of 490 feet, which they figured would cost about $5,000. They also planned to purchase four machine drills with air compressor, $2,000 and a Hendryx plant $3,000, making a total of $10,000. The company was unfortunate in having put in an expensive mill which did not save values, but the Hendryx system, which the trustees planned to install, was expected to save 90 per cent. of the values. The future of the company depended almost entirely on the sale of the treasury stock and bonds and whether these met with a ready market, we cannot ascertain. The company, however, was still under development in 1908. We have no further record of this company nor is it listed in up to date mining manuals and as we do not locate any quotations of this stock we believe the company has gone out of existence and the stock of no value.

New Jersey Gold & Silver Mining Company. Granted a charter in Montana on February 16, 1866, and as far as we can ascertain is not in Owned a plant located at Rahway, New Jersey, especially equipped for the manufacture of steel castings. Had $850,000 common and $150,000 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock. Also $250,000 first mortgage 6 per cent. bonds. Dividends on preferred were paid regularly to June, 1912; none thereafter. Office was at Rahway, N. J. Was controlled by the American Finance & Securities Co. Plant was idle for two years and in April, 1915, was placed in the hands of receivers. In September, 1915, it was sold at public auction for $46,500 and purchased for account of the Riverside Steel Company.

New Jersey Stone Co. New Jersey charter revoked for non-payment of annual registration fee for two years January 5, 1909.

New Jersey West Line Railway Company. Incorporated about 1869 with a capital stock of $3,000,000. Company also had a $3,000,000 funded debt consisting of first mortgage 7 per cent. gold bonds dated May 1, 1870, due May 1, 1900. Interest payable May and November. It was intended that this company should form a direct line across New Jersey from Jersey City to the Delaware River. In 1878 its line of road was about 62 miles. In 1878 it was reported that company refused all information. In February, 1874, Wm. A. Larned of New York, was appointed receiver. On August 3, 1878, the railroad was sold under foreclosure of the $3,000,000 mortgage and was bought in by Mr. J. J. Flannagan for $50,000, he being the only bidder. On October 9, the purchasers of the New Jersey West Line, organized a new corporation under the name of Passaic & Delaware Railroad Company. Capital stock of latter company was 1,000,000 shares $50 each. Road was leased November 1, 1882, to Delaware Lackawanna & Western Railroad. There does not appear to be any value for these shares at the present time.

New Jersey White Lead Co. New Jersey charter revoked for non-payment of annual registration fee for two years January 5, 1909.

New Jersey & Mississippi Land Co. Incorporated under the laws of the State of New Jersey on July 12, 1895. Advised by the Secretary of State of New Jersey that its charter was dissolved by the action of its stockholders on September 27, 1901. The certificate of dissolution was signed by Theodore B. Rogers as sole stockholder and director, but his address was not given. The principal office of the company in New Jersey was given as Spruce St., Paterson, N. J., and the agent in charge thereof, upon whom process might be served is George E. Hannah. Stock has no value.

Pavilion Hill, Tompkinsville, Staten Island. Was a fake. Promoted by E. V. B. Von Brandenburg who was convicted in March, 1920, of fraud in connection with the sale of the stock.

New Mexican Oil Petroleum Company. Properties were reported to consist of about 200 acres of oil lands located near Carlsbad, New Mexico. No report of any oil having been found on the properties. Was promoted by Emerson & Company, which had as a member Gustav Aufrecht, who was arrested by the Federal authorities on February 20, 1916, on the alleged charge of using the mails to defraud. A guarantee was made in the offering of the stock to buy back the shares at twice the issue price at the end of three months. A stock selling scheme. No market for the stock. Considered worthless.

New Mexico-Colorado Coal & Mining Company. Incorporated under the laws of New Mexico in July, 1911. Capital stock amounted to $2,500,000. Also authorized $750,000 1st col. 5s and $2,500,000 2nd col. 5 per cent. bonds. There is no record that the 1st 5s were ever issued. In August, 1916, the 2nd 5s defaulted and the Equitable Trust Co. as trustee foreclosed the mortgage. The Protective Committee formed made a plan whereby bondholders might participate in purchase of deposited collateral. The stock had a claim on the collateral subject to the bonds, which has not been satisfied so the stock is apparently worthless.

New Mexico Copper Mining & Smelting Company. Owned mineral lands located at Lucero, Mora County, New Mexico. No record of operations. Reported dead by the Copper Handbook in 1908.

The latter company had been placed in the hands of a receiver on November 14, 1901, on application of Robert Moore, a bondholder. Frank Howard was the receiver appointed by the United States District Court because of the decision of the State Supreme Court annulling the company's charter on the ground of excessive water rates persistently maintained. The New Orleans Water Supply Company has an authorized capital stock of $2,000,000 of which $1,596,800 is outstanding, par $100. At the present time the New Orleans Water Supply Company is in process of liquidation. The assets consist of cash, notes receivable and real estate in the amount of $87,531.46 while the total liabilities amount to $11,306.25 leaving a net worth of $76,225.61 to be liquidated and distributed to the stockholders, amounting to approximately $4.77 per share. Liquidating dividends have been distributed as follows: 1908, $23.00 per share; 1909, $6.50 per share; 1917, $2.00 per share. No other distribution has been made to the stockholders. The capital stock has changed hands recently at New Orleans at 50c a share at which price we understand brokers of that city are willing to buy.

New York By-Products Coke Company. This company was incorporated under the laws of New York State about 1901 or some time prior thereto, with a capital stock of $6,000,000. The officers and directors were John A. Young, president; Henry D. Banner, secretary, with company office at No. 59 Cedar Street, New York City. No New York office is reported after 1901 and we do not locate any quotations or sales of the company's stock, therefore we believe that the company has gone out of existence and there can be no value to its stock.

New York-Calaveras Mining Company. Incorporated under the laws of California. Was proclaimed by the Governor in March, 1918, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

New York California Oil Company. Company was organized about 1901 under the laws of West Virginia with a capital stock of $1,000,000. Par $1. Company reported to have owned 90 acres of oil land at Kern River, California, 10 acres of this being in a very good quarter section 29 and the last report was that one well had been drilled. At the time the company was active, the price of oil was so low that with one well the company could not operate at a profit. There was not enough cash on hand to drill other wells. Last known officers were: Ralph Bisbee, president; Henry M. Conover, treasurer. Office No. 52 Broadway, New York. Hillyer, Clark & Company of New York were the promoters. In view of the fact that the company could not operate at a profit we believe the company died a natural death and in 1925 the Delaware charter was repealed for non-payment of taxes for two years. We believe the stock worthless as of December 31, 1925.

New York, Pennsylvania & Ohio Railroad Company. This road was leased for a good many years to the New York, Lake Erie & Western Railroad Company (Erie R. R.). Along in 1896 the reorganization of the Erie went into effect and about this same time the property of the company in question was foreclosed and it is reported that the creditors completely used up the money realized from this sale. In view of the above we believe the securities of this company without value at the present time.

New York Petroleum & Gas Corp. Delaware charter repealed January 24, 1927.

New York-Philadelphia Company. Chartered December 31, 1904, under the laws of New Jersey and owned the entire capital stocks of the Trenton and New Brunswick Railroad, the New Jersey Short Line Railroad, and also a majority of the capital stock of the Camden and Trenton Railway Company, prior to their sale under foreclosure proceedings. Company had an authorized capital stock of $4,000,000, outstanding $2,530,500. Par value $100 and a funded debt of $600,000, 1st trust mortgage 6 per cent. 30 year gold bonds due March 1, 1935, authorized issue $4,000,000. These bonds were secured by deposit of the majority of the stock of the Camden and Trenton Railway and the entire capital stocks of the Trenton & New Brunswick Railroad and the New Jersey Short Line Railroad. Company also had $350,000 6 per cent. gold coupon notes, dated April 1, 1907, due April 1, 1910, that were secured by a deposit of $500,000 of the 1st trust mortgage 5 per cent. bonds. On January 1, 1908, the controlled companies defaulted in payment of interest due by them on bonded debts and receivers were subsequently appointed for controlled companies. On February 21, 1908, J. Kearney Rice of New Brunswick, N. J., was appointed receiver for the New York Philadelphia Company, the company having defaulted in the interest due on its bonds March 1, 1908. The Trenton & New Brunswick Railroad was sold at foreclosure sale on May 4, 1908, for $200,000 and the Camden & Trenton Railway Company sold at foreclosure on March 18, 1910, for $675,000. The New Jersey Short Line Railroad Company also sold at foreclosure on May 4, 1908. The funded debt of these controlled companies far exceeded the price received at these sales, and we do not consider that the capital stock of these companies which was owned by the New York-Philadelphia Company and the deposit of which secured the 1st mortgage 5 per cent bonds due 1935 received anything after these sales and cannot therefore attach any value to the stock or bonds due 1935. The Trenton & New Brunswick Railroad and the New Jersey Short Line Railroad were subsequently reorganized into the Elizabeth and Trenten Railroad. The Guaranty Trust Company of New York City, New York, was trustee for the 5 per cent. bonds due 1935. The directors of the company were as follows: W. A. Stern, A. N. Chandler, I. H. Silverman, A. S. Chandler, Philadelphia; George H. B. Martin, Camden, New Jersey. Officers: W. A. Stern, president; A. N. Chandler, vice president; I. H. Silverman, treasurer; J. Dixon Andrews, secretary, Philadelphia, Penn.

New York-Philadelphia Company, Inc. This company is reported to have been organized under the laws of the state of South Dakota but the Department of State of South Dakota advises that they find no record in their office of a company by this name. We find no market for this stock anywhere and believe it to be valueless. A company by this name was incorporated under the laws of the state of New Jersey in 1905 but in 1910 forfeited its right to do business for failure to comply with those laws. Since that time it has been publicly advertised as defunct and inoperative. We submit this stock as valueless.

New York, Pittsburgh & Chicago Railway Company. This company operated around 1886. Sometime later the road was succeeded by the Pittsburgh, Marion & Chicago Railroad. This latter road was foreclosed in 1896, and its stock reported worthless in 1904. We therefore believe the stock worthless at the present time.

New York Time Table Distributing Company, Incorporated. Incorporated under the laws of New York, in 1917, with $220,000 capital stock, shares $25 par. Was organized to distribute railroad time tables and literature. Business discontinued when the government took over the lines at the beginning of 1918. Little chance of resuming. Stock practically worthless. Charter dissolved June 14, 1920.

New York Tin Plate & Steel Corp. Delaware charter proclaimed repealed for non-payment of two years' taxes January 20, 1928.

New York-Tonopah Consolidated Mining Company. Incorporated July 20, 1904, and since that date has failed to make annual reports or pay annual fees, as required by law. The Arizona Corporation Commission is required to take judicial action on all corporations which have failed for a period of two years or more to file their annual reports and pay the fees thereon. Unless all fees and court costs are paid said corporations are declared legally dead. This company has no legal existence at the present time.

New York Touring Car Company. Property and operations not reported. Capital stock $1,000,000. Was a stock selling scheme promoted by H. L. Cooke.

New York Zinc Company. Incorporated under the laws of Delaware in July, 1899. Owned 148 acres of zinc and lead lands near Galena, Kansas. Had $700,000 capital stock, shares $25 par, and $68,000 bonds. Receiver was appointed in March, 1910. Classed as a stock selling scheme.

New York & Arkansas Oil Company, Mena, Arkansas. Incorporated June 25, 1901. Authority revoked by Governor's proclamation of April 23, 1923, under Act No. 158 of 1923.

New York & Baltimore Transportation. Incorporated Maryland, 1868. Capital $300,000. Par value $20. Last reported officers and directors in 1917: John Monks, Jr., president; Bertram R. Roome, secretary. Directors: the above and Harry K. Knapp, John Cadivalder, Jr., Richard A. Monks. Address, Pier 10 Ene, New York City. We find no trace of the company or its officers since that time. We believe the company out of existence at the present time. There is no market for the stock as far as we can ascertain.

New York & Boston Insurance Company. Chartered under the laws of New York. Operations not reported. Shares $50 par. Ceased business in 1881. Was in process of liquidation in 1904 and up to that time had distributed $20 a share. Had an office in New York.

New York & Boston Railroad Company. Company was chartered in 1846 and in 1853 commenced the construction of a line of road from New Haven to Willimantic, Connecticut, 50 miles, sidings, etc, 3.6 miles. For failure to proceed with this work its charter rights expired and subsequently the work was undertaken by the New Haven, Middletown & Willimantic Railroad Company which completed the road August 13, 1873. The capitalization of the New Haven, Middletown & Willimantic Railroad Company consisted of capital stock authorized $3,000,000, outstanding $1,250,000; first mortgage 7 per cent. bonds dated November 1, 1889, due May 1, 1899. interest payable May and November first, authorized $3,000,000, outstanding $2,500,000; and $2,000,000, outstanding second mortgage bonds. On June 4, 1875, Judge Granger of the Superior Court at New Haven, Connecticut, granted a decree of foreclosure to take effect June 25, 1875. Subsequently the Boston and New York Air Line Railroad was organized and stock of this company was offered in the reorganization in exchange for the bonds of the New Haven, Middletown & Willimantic Railroad Company. The provision appears to have been made for the capital stock of either the New York & Boston Railroad or the New Haven, Middletown & Willimantic Railroad Company, and we believe capital stock of both companies was wiped out through foreclosure and subsequent reorganizations. The Boston & New York Air Line Railroad was taken over by the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad in 1907.

New York & Brooklyn Brewing Company. This company was taken over by the Interborough Brewing Company in 1913 and there was an exchange of stock of this company for the old. The Interborough Brewing Company went out of existence in 1918 without benefit to the stockholders. Therefore any outstanding stock of the New York & Brooklyn Brewing Company is without value.

New York & Brooklyn Mutual Fire Insurance Company. Organized April 20, 1897, in New York State and ceased business January 31, 1898, when it went into voluntary dissolution. Officers were reported to be: Geo. W. Cooper, president; Solomon Ketchum, Jr., secretary. The company had an office at 29 Liberty Street, New York City. Assets were last reported to be $59,600.02, and liabilities $18,571.70, in 1898. A search of the records of New York County from 1897 to 1910 fails to show any record of the final order of court or anything pertaining to the company. We submit these shares as valueless as of September 10, 1928.

New York & Coalinga Oil Company. No record of properties or operations. Capital stock $5,000,000.

METROPOLITAN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY — NEW YORK

NOT BEST BECAUSE THE BIGGEST, BUT BIGGEST BECAUSE THE BEST

A stock selling scheme in which Burr Bros. were interested.

New York & Colorado Gold Mining Company. Incorporated under the laws of New York about 1879. Shares $20 par. No record of property. Extinct and stock worthless.

New York & Ely Consolidated Copper Company. Owned mineral lands located at Ely, Nevada. No record of operations. Had an office at 66 Broadway. Reported dead by the Copper Handbook, in 1908.

New York and Hagerstown Metal Stamping Co. Incorporated under the laws of the State of Maryland in 1915 and was the offspring of an old company and had, we understand, assumed a very heavy indebtedness when it was organized. On January 2, 1918, the name was changed to the Maryland Pressed Steel Company and the charter of this company was forfeited by proclamation of the Governor of Maryland on February 13, 1926, for non-payment of State taxes. There is no market for this stock at the present time and we believe it to be valueless.

New York & Hempstead Railroad. Organized on July 7, 1871, in New York as a consolidation of the Hempstead & Rockaway Railroad which had built a line about 5½ miles in length from Hempstead to Valley Stream, Long Island, and the New York & Hempstead Plains Railroad which was organized to build a line from Hempstead to Bay Ridge. Two mortgages were placed on the property of the consolidated company. One for $100,000 by the original Hempstead & Rockaway Railroad prior to consolidation covering the constructed line of road. One for $1,000,000 by the consolidated company (New York & Hempstead Railroad) covering the constructed line as a second mortgage as well as the line to be constructed to Bay Ridge. This bond issue was guaranteed as to principal and interest by the South Side Railroad Company of Long Island, bore interest of 7 per cent. and was due 1901. Subsequently the $100,000 mortgage of the Hempstead & Rockaway Railroad was foreclosed by the Brooklyn Trust Company and there was $50,000 realized from the sale of the property. The railroad of the New York & Hempstead Railroad Company was sold in September, 1874, for $60,000 to the South Hempstead Branch Railroad Company (organized 1875) but afterwards abandoned. The guaranty of the South Side Railroad Company was abandoned at the time of foreclosure of the Hempstead & Rockaway Railroad property and the equity for the New York & Hempstead Railroad $1,000,000 7 per cent. mortgage bonds due 1901 was entirely wiped out. Therefore these bonds are of no value.

New York & Indiana Stone Company. Incorporated under the laws of Delaware. Was proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1917, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

New York & Kentucky Company. Incorporated under the laws of New York, in January, 1900, to engage in a general distilling and wholesale business in cologne, spirits, alcohol, whiskey and medicinal preparations. Controls plants located at Frankfort, Kentucky, Rochester, Buffalo, New York, Waterloo and Albany, St. Louis, Boston and Carrollton, Maryland. Had outstanding $3,500,000 common and $1,000,000, 7 per cent. cumulative preferred stock, shares $100 par. Dividends paid regularly on preferred. On common 6 per cent. was paid in 1901 and 1902; 1903, 9 per cent.; 1904, 11½ per cent.; 1905, 54 per cent.; 1906, 19 per cent.; 1907, 22 per cent.; 1908 and 1909, 16 per cent.; 1910, 14 per cent.; 1911, 10 per cent.; 1912, 7¾ per cent.; 1913, 7 per cent.; 1914, 5¼ per cent.; 1917 to conclusion, 5 per cent. annually. Office was at Rochester, New York. Was in process of liquidation in 1919.

New York & Lackawanna Securities Company. Incorporated under the laws of New York. On May 13, 1914, the Court of Albany granted an application of the Attorney General dissolving the company for default in the payment of franchise taxes to the State.

New York & Lake Superior Iron Co., Marquette Co., Michigan. Forfeited. Out of business. January 13, 1903.

New York & Liverpool Petroleum Co. On October 20, 1915, 5 shares of this company's stock, in combination with 7913½ shares of other concerns, were sold at auction and brought $25 for the lot.

New York & Maine General Mining Co. Incorporated in New York 1868. The stock of this company was reported worthless in 1911 and we submit it as such at the present time.

New York & Massachusetts Railway Company. The New York & Massachusetts Railway Company which was reorganized as the Poughkeepsie & Eastern Railway, October 30, 1893, and later merged into the Central New England Railway Company, was purchased of the Estate of Russell Sage. The Poughkeepsie, Hartford & Boston Railroad Company issued bonds and they were secured by a mortgage which was foreclosed in 1893, and was settled for out of the proceeds of the sale of the property under the foreclosure decree. Mr. Sage bought the road at the foreclosure and organized the Poughkeepise and Eastern Railway Company. The New York & Massachusetts Railway bonds were subject to the Poughkeepsie, Hartford & Boston bonds and were wiped out in the foreclosure above referred to. Therefore the 1st mortgage 5 per cent. bonds of 1937 of the New York & Massachusetts Railway Company are of no value whatever.

New York & Michigan Mining Co., Houghton, Ontonagon and Marquette Counties, Michigan. Out by limitation 1872.

New York & New England Shoe Mfrs. Selling Co., Detroit, Michigan. Forfeited. No report filed since 1889.

New York & New Jersey Bridge Company. Incorporated New Jersey prior to 1900. President: Dr. Gustav Lindenthal. Remarks: The company attempted to get through the legislature a bill granting the right to erect a bridge, costing approximately $40,000 across the Hudson River from New York to New Jersey at 59th Street. The cost at that time was considered too great for such an uncertain project and the bill was defeated. The New Jersey charter of the company was declared null and void in 1906 for non-payment of taxes. In view of the above, we believe the securities of this company to be without value at the present time.

New York & New Jersey Contracting Co. Incorporated under the laws of New Jersey. Was proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1915, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

New York & New Jersey Power Co. The latest information available in the records of the Public Service Commission at Albany is a letter from the New York and New Jersey Power Company requesting that some cases that had been closed in 1917 be reopened. The company was then advised on May 15, 1925, that the commission had considered this request and if it were desired to bring the matter to the attention of the commission that it should be in the form of a new petition. This petition was evidently never presented. Mr. G. Gettel, executive secretary, who asked that these cases be reopened, does not respond to letters directed to him at his former address. They have been returned unclaimed. For appraisal we would say that this stock, par $25, has only a nominal value, if any at all at the present time.

New York & New Jersey Soap Co. Incorporated under the laws of New Jersey. Was proclaimed by the Governor in January, 1915, and its charter declared forfeited and repealed at that time for non-payment of taxes, etc.

New York & Oklahoma Oil Company. No record of properties or operations. Capital stock $500,000, shares $1 par. A stock selling scheme in which C. Plum Roberts and J. M. Devere & Company were interested. Traded in on New York Curb.

Newark Meadows Improvement Company. Incorporated under the laws of New Jersey in March, 1908, as a reorganization and consolidation of the Hackensack Meadows Co. and the New Jersey Terminal Dock & Improvement Co. Owned factory sites located on the Newark meadows. Had authorized $1,500,000 capital stock, of which $1,261,585 had been issued to holders of New Jersey Terminal Dock & Improvement Co. bonds and stock. Balance was in treasury. Shares $100 par. Had outstanding $1,850,000 incomes, $2,000,000 debentures and a $135,000 purchase money mortgage. Office was at 30 Church Street. Receiver was appointed in May, 1913. In March, 1915, the Guaranty Trust Co. started suit to obtain a deficiency judgment of $1,078,988 against the company. Action followed suit to foreclose mortgage. When the final decree in the latter suit was made in 1914 there was due the Guaranty Trust Co. under the mortgage $2,354,788, less $187,774 sinking fund. Some of the lands covered by the mortgage were sold at public auction. Went out of business in February, 1915, and was succeeded by the Newark Factory Sites, Inc.

Newfoundland Timber, Pulp & Paper Company, Ltd. Company was formed under the laws of Newfoundland to acquire two timber tracts in West Newfoundland, situated on the Bay of Islands, having an area of about 45 square miles, and 10¾ square miles, held on license for 50 years from 1903 and 1907, respectively, at a nominal rental and a royalty of 50 cents per 1000 square feet of timber from the Newfoundland government. In 1913 R. J. Jose & Company, 15 Broad Street, New York City offered for sale $150,000 Newfoundland Timber, Pulp & Paper Company, Ltd., 6 per cent. gold debentures dated April 1, 1913, at 95 and accrued interest. Interest on these debentures was payable April and October first at the New York Trust Company, New York City. These debentures were to run for a period of 15 years but were redeemable at par, at the expiration of five years by annual drawings, or by purchase in the market at the option of the directors, if under par. The capitalization consisted of the following: $200,000.00 authorized and to be issued six per cent. debentures dated April 1, 1913, 40,000 shares authorized and to be issued, common stock, par $5 a share. The officers and directors of the company as of February 25, 1913, were as follows: Thomas Malcolm, president, Hartford, Conn.; Townsend Mathews, vice president, Mt. Kisco, N. Y.; Richard Phillips, secretary-treasurer, New York City; David Roberts, director, London, England; Leonard T. Saunders, director, New York City. The solictors for the company at that time were Furlong & Conroy, St. Johns, Newfoundland. In July, 1919, the New York Trust Company of New York City advised that they were not the trustee for the debenture issue, but that they were the appointed agent to pay coupons and that this company was introduced to them through the Fidelity Trust Company of Hartford, Connecticut. As of June 9, 1928, the New York Trust Company advises that no funds were ever deposited with them to pay the interest coupons and that George Murray Brooks of 120 Broadway, New York City, was at one time attorney for the Newfoundland Timber, Pulp & Paper Company, Ltd. Mr. George Murray Brooks is now located at 501 Fifth Avenue, New York City, and advises that he never was attorney for the company. Bankers of St. George's, Newfoundland, which is the nearest banking place to where this company is supposed to have had its property, advise that they have never heard of the company. The charter of a company of this title was revoked under Massachusetts laws on March 31, 1927. The original attorneys for the company, Furlong and Conroy of St. Johns, Newfoundland, ceased to exist sometime ago and were succeeded by Higgins, Hunt & Emerson of St. Johns, Newfoundland, who are unable to give us any information in regard to the company without going to considerable research. The last report made by this company to the Registry of Companies office at St. Johns, Newfoundland, was for the year of 1914. The Royal Bank of Canada at St. Johns, Newfoundland, have been informed by a party who should be well informed in this matter that the bonds may be considered worthless.

Non-Derrick Drilling Machine Company. The following was reported in the press on July 28, 1919: "Government Does a Little Drilling": "In exploiting its stock as an unusual investment, the Non-Derrick Drilling Machine Company of Pittsburgh failed to realize the possibility of drilling for funds on hard rocks. But this is what has happened. The rock on which the Non-Derrick Drilling Machine hit was Uncle Sam, who has haled the company's officers to Washington to answer the Federal Trade Commission's allegations that it was misrepresenting its securities by false and misleading statements. It is further charged that the company has issued extravagant statements, reports, promises and predictions, all for the purpose of inviting the purchase of stock. If these allegations are proven, the company, so far as getting money from investors is concerned, will become a non-drilling one." Remarks: On October 4, 1920, 150 shares were offered at market and received no bids; on February 9, 1921, 20 shares were bid at market but received no offers. It is our opinion that this company has dropped out of existence and these shares values. Delaware charter repealed January 24, 1927.

North American Dredging Company. Re: 6 per cent. bonds dated February 1, 1908, due February 1, 1928. These bonds were not paid at maturity and no interest has been paid on them since coupon No. 23, due August 1, 1919 was paid on December 20, 1924. Mr. Paulson of the United Dredging Company at 2701 Woolworth Building, New York City, informs us that the present property behind the bonds is old and much of it is obsolete. There has been no attempt to reorganize the company or exchange these bonds for other securities. Mr. Paulson states that on a recent trip West he was told that some of the bondholders were willing to dispose of their bonds for 10 cents on the dollar, but that there were no buyers.
